James Thomas Brett

Doctor of Humane Letters

Honoris causa

James T. Brett, your extraordinary accomplishments are a testament to the power of advocacy. As a change agent throughout your career, your remarkable life's work reflects an abiding commitment to service and to providing a voice for those who might otherwise remain unheard.

As President and Chief Executive Officer of The New England Council you have initiated vast and long-lasting impact throughout the region on an array of issues that are vital to the area's economic vibrancy. From energy and healthcare, to education, technology and infrastructure, your visionary leadership has played a key role in bringing corporate and political changemakers together to effect policy change and enhance programming.

Public service is a cornerstone of your career. No matter the role – whether serving as a member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives or as chairman/member of the many presidential, congressional and gubernatorial committees to which you have been appointed – you bring insightful wisdom, compassion and strategic acuity to the task at hand.

The son of an Irish immigrant who refused a doctor's advice to institutionalize her severely disabled first born – your older brother Jack – you learned early on the lessons of love and inclusiveness. Your mother was your inspiration, your brother was your teacher. You became a tireless champion committed to improving access and opportunity for all individuals with disabilities and have said many times over that you entered public office “on a pledge and a promise to my mother and to my brother” to make a difference. Throughout your career in both public and private sectors, you have been an ardent advocate for individuals facing learning, physical or intellectual challenges. Thanks to your tenacious advocacy and abiding commitment to equity and inclusion, the communities in which you serve are inspired by, and imbued with, mercy.

For your lifelong dedication to service and advocacy, Salve Regina University hereby confers upon you, James T. Brett, as an honorary member of the Class of 2024, the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, with all its attendant rights, privileges and responsibilities on this nineteenth day of May in the year 2024.

Christine M. Kavanagh, RSM

Doctor of Humane Letters

Honoris causa

Sister Christine Kavanagh, you are the mercy mission. Living a life of faith, hope, love and grace, you willingly enter into the lives of others, seeking to uplift the human experience for all. Through your visionary dedication to the clients and staff at ReFocus, you have nurtured a family with a common mission – to embrace and empower those with differing abilities so that they may thrive and grow.

As president of the corporation and executive director of ReFocus, your career spans more than five decades and your unwavering commitment truly makes a difference for those you serve. Embracing the organization's mission to love, trust and challenge, you inspire all members of the community to recognize and appreciate the gifts which with they have been blessed.

Growing up in Rhode Island as the youngest of seven, family summers spent beside the ocean inspired a love for swimming amongst the waves and long walks on the beach. An avid traveler, theater enthusiast, and staunch believer in the power of love and its ability to change lives, you have shared many adventures with the ReFocus family, making dreams come true and illustrating that human potential can be realized with a little help from friends.

A beloved trustee for 18 years, your strategic leadership has been instrumental in Salve Regina's growth. With keen vision and a deep belief in the power of a mercy-inspired education, you have played an important role in developing the leaders of tomorrow who will continue to work for a more harmonious, just and merciful world.

For your tireless advocacy, visionary leadership and profound faith in humanity, Salve Regina University hereby confers upon you, Sister Christine Kavanagh, as an honorary member of the Class of 2024, the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, with all its attendant rights, privileges and responsibilities on this nineteenth day of May in the year 2024.

Gloria Purvis

*Doctor of Humane Letters
Honoris causa*

Gloria Purvis, you uplift the core beliefs of Salve Regina’s Catholic heritage and give voice to the critical concerns integrally woven into the University’s mercy-inspired education. With deep faith and profound grace, you carry forth a message of harmony and justice for a hope-filled future.

As an author, commentator, media host and scholar, you amplify stories and spotlight issues that may be difficult but must not be ignored. With courage and conviction, you open dialogue around anti-racism, reminding us we are bound together as God’s creations and emphasizing that dignity belongs to all humans regardless of race, creed or gender.

A thoughtful advocate for those who are marginalized, you educate and empower so that our faith communities might foster a brighter tomorrow. Through your service on numerous councils and commissions, and in conversations with clerics and scholars, you provide spaces for questions, collaboration, consideration and discovery. Your gifts for connection and understanding encourage people to embrace forgiveness – for themselves and for others.

Answering God’s call at a young age, you chose Catholicism with an open mind and open heart. As a lay Carmelite, you live your faith mindfully and lovingly through prayer and a deep belief that our Lord walks with us throughout life’s journey. You advocate for truth and highlight stories that create communities in which equity and inclusion reign.

For your commitment to social justice and your work that amplifies the critical concerns of the Sisters of Mercy, Salve Regina University hereby confers upon you, Gloria Purvis, as an honorary member of the Class of 2024, the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, with all its attendant rights, privileges and responsibilities on this nineteenth day of May in the year 2024.

Susan Eisenhower

Doctor of International Relations

Honoris causa

Susan Eisenhower, you embody Salve Regina's mercy-inspired mission by ever working toward a more harmonious and just world. Building upon a family tradition of service and leadership, your dedication to a greater purpose is visionary, and your career reflects a future-focused lens through which you see vast potential for uplifting humanity.

A gifted and prolific author, educator and speaker, your work highlights the importance of strategic leadership and international collaboration for a sustainable future. By amplifying the transformative power of education and innovation, you inspire the next generation of leaders to creatively ideate and empathetically implement solutions that offer opportunities for equity and progress.

Your research in the fields of national and energy security illuminates critical challenges that demand our attention as global citizens. Like your grandfather, you have "a talent for envisioning a whole, especially in the context of the long game," illustrated by your service on numerous commissions and committees, including MIT's Energy Initiative Advisory Board and the Secretary of Energy's Nuclear Energy Advisory Board.

Through your insightful exploration of principled reasoning and profound integrity, "How Ike Led" unveils a role model for future leaders. By dedicating your book to your students and "the rising generations across the country," you offer hope for a future in which those who lead us will do so with accountability, empathy, respect and courage.

For your astute vision and commitment to a world governed by ethical leadership, Salve Regina University hereby confers upon you, Susan Eisenhower, as an honorary member of the Class of 2024, the degree of Doctor of International Relations, honoris causa, with all its attendant rights, privileges and responsibilities on this nineteenth day of May in the year 2024.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

When universities were taking form in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, they were under the jurisdiction of the Church. Most of those studying were clerks in Holy Orders, monks, or priests. They wore a habit or cloak, to which was attached a cowl or hood. This could be pulled up over the head or thrown back, according to the weather. Gowns were necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings, and hoods served to cover the tonsured head before the use of the skull cap.

Today, the academic costume of cap, gown and hood has taken on a symbolic meaning. Colors and shapes conform to a generally accepted code and indicate the faculty conferring the degree and the kind of degree conferred. Gowns for the bachelor's degree are worn closed and are distinguished by their long, pointed sleeves. Master's degree gowns are designed to be worn open. They have very long sleeves, oblong in shape. Gowns for the doctoral degree, usually black, are also designed to be worn open and have velvet panels. Three velvet bars are stitched to the upper part of the full, bell-shaped sleeves.

Hoods are trimmed with a slim strip of velvet to indicate the specific faculty awarding the degree. The colored lining is the official color of the institution conferring the degree. Hoods may be trimmed to represent the following academic areas:

Arts, Letters, Humanities . . . . .	White
Business Administration . . . . .	Light Brown
Education . . . . .	Light Blue
Fine Arts . . . . .	Brown
Musical Arts . . . . .	Pink
Nursing . . . . .	Apricot
Philosophy . . . . .	Dark Blue
Science . . . . .	Golden Yellow
Theology . . . . .	Scarlet

HONOR CORDS

---

---

Students at Salve Regina University who have distinguished themselves through academic performance wear honor cords of these colors:

- Gold — Summa Cum Laude
- Blue — Magna Cum Laude
- White — Cum Laude

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

---

This seal depicts Our Lady of Mercy enclosed in a circle and standing before a cross. Around Our Lady's head is inscribed the motto: Maria Spes Nostra, Mary our Hope. On one side of the base is the lamp of wisdom, and on the other, the book of learning. This seal, according to the bylaws, shall be affixed to all official documents and decrees prepared by Salve Regina University.

THE MACE

The mace and its bearer represent a custom that dates back to the Middle Ages. From the sixteenth century in England and since colonial days in America, it has become a symbol of office carried by the procession leader. In the academic world, the mace signifies teaching authority.

The Salve Regina University mace was designed by Rhode Island sculptor Paul A. Cavanagh as an octagonal, formalized flower. The staff of ebony represents lignum vitae — the tree of life. A circle of eight rigid geometric forms of silver, peaked with pyramids of lapis lazuli, are representative of the Virtues. The Intellectual and Moral Virtues enable one to lead a fruitful and good life. The extending leaves of blossom deriving from the silver forms are symbolic of one's development in the world. An inner circle of leaves, in close embrace with the central form, and pistil-like cruciform with crown, suggest one's development in love of Christ and the cross.

THE PRESIDENT'S MEDALLION

The sterling silver medallion worn by the University President at all formal academic functions symbolizes the leadership and authority of the institution's highest office.

Handcrafted by John Cavanagh, the design is based on the University shield, which symbolizes the commitment of the Sisters of Mercy to Salve Regina University, the dedication to learning by all members of the Salve Regina community, and the unending search for wisdom that flows from the knowledge of the liberal scholar. Each link of the chain is a "Mercy Cross," with a crown superimposed over the face of each cross.
