Donald Clough Christ

*Doctor of Humane Letters
honoris causa*

Well known for your kindness and a keen ability to envision potential, you, Donald Clough Christ, are a loyal friend, trusted advisor and extraordinary advocate for education who has touched countless lives, including thousands in the Salve Regina University community. Never one to step into the spotlight, you uplift those around you with a quiet grace and steadfast encouragement that inspire a determination to achieve.

A distinguished career as a New York City attorney following studies at Yale University paid tribute to your father, an esteemed judge whose love of law and justice you inherited and have carried throughout your life. Recognized for your integrity and excellence by peers near and far, you earned respect throughout the industry in your work with the prestigious firm Sullivan & Cromwell, where you practiced law for many decades.

As Chairman for the Alletta Morris McBean Charitable Trust, you have championed many causes, with particular concern for the Newport nonprofits working to create a better life for neighbors in need. Your guidance has been instrumental in launching initiatives on behalf of children and families as well as in the fields of education, healthcare, historic preservation and more, reflecting the same Mercy values that are the foundation of Salve Regina.

A captivating storyteller whose wit lightens hearts, your friendship is a source of joy and your unwavering loyalty a gift to all who are blessed to know you. Always willing to listen, to learn and to respond to need, your compassionate service has made a deep and lasting impact across Salve Regina's campus and in surrounding communities.

In gratitude for your partnership, generosity and trusted leadership, Salve Regina University hereby confers upon you, Donald Clough Christ, as an honorary member of the Class of 2020, the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, with all its attendant rights, privileges and responsibilities on this sixteenth day of May in the year 2021.

Dr. Bernard LaFayette Jr.

*Doctor of Humane Letters
honoris causa*

Believing that the path to justice can be peacefully paved, you, Bernard LaFayette Jr., have dedicated your life to eradicating inequality through nonviolence. Your voice as an activist, minister, educator and lecturer has resoundingly amplified, with purpose and passion, those needing to be heard.

As a student at the American Baptist Theological Seminary, you began your life's work as an advocate for social justice by creating momentum in the Civil Rights Movement with like-minded contemporaries; each of you following your hearts in doing what was right, and irrevocably shaping history with your vision for our nation. Your legacy is forever united with that of Martin Luther King Jr. and John Lewis, leaving a deep and lasting impact for future generations.

Standing with courageous determination against forces that sought to tear you down, you set about on a resolute mission, seeking to illustrate that a world in which the humanity of each individual is recognized and respected is one worth fighting for, and can be achieved if we join together in appreciating each person's unique, God-given gifts. A scholar and a leader, you boarded buses, sat at lunch counters and faced the insidious evils of racism to combat the inequities of segregation, proving that peaceful protest inspires and cultivates social change.

You have spoken of agape, the Greek notion of unconditional love, and described it as the foundation for nonviolence as a philosophy and way of life. Like Mercy, it asks for nothing in return, but its power is transformative. And like the Sisters of Mercy in their commitment to the Critical Concerns of nonviolence and racism, you turned empathy into action, always looking to engage, to listen and to advance the concepts of equity and inclusion.

Spanning decades, your career has taken you across the globe to share a message of peace and nonviolence, and your work to forge systemic change has been tireless. For your dedication to a shared mission and working toward a world that is harmonious, just and merciful, Salve Regina University is pleased and honored to bestow upon you, Bernard LaFayette Jr., as an honorary member of the Class of 2020, the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, with all its attendant rights and privileges, on this sixteenth day of May 2021.

Kathy Behrens

*Doctor of Humane Letters
honoris causa*

Public service is a common thread woven throughout your life and your career, Kathy Behrens; a thread that has impacted the lives of thousands upon thousands—from the neighborhoods of New York City to communities around the world. A leader looking to support and empower, you have worked with determination to positively impact the lives of countless children and families, proving that when people join together to lend a helping hand, nothing is impossible.

Your journey after graduation from the University of Hartford began in politics but then took you into the nonprofit sector, where you served as executive director for New York Cares, connecting enthusiastic volunteers with their neighbors in need. Joining the National Basketball Association, you found an organization with global outreach in which service to the community is a priority. In your role as President for Social Responsibility and Player Programs, you provide opportunities for the NBA to develop players who embrace their unique gifts, as both athletes and as compassionate individuals with the power to make a difference.

With a belief in the importance of philanthropy, providing hands-on service and creating legacy projects that enhance communities, you demonstrate the Mercy values that Salve Regina holds dear by recognizing need and striving to find solutions. Under your leadership, NBA Cares partners with organizations such as Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Vera Institute of Justice, Special Olympics and UNICEF to promote and support the education and well-being of youth and families worldwide. By engaging over 60 million youth in 40 countries, the program and its participants have strengthened communities through more than five million hours of service.

As a dedicated leader in your profession, as well as a member of Share Our Strength's Leadership Council and your alma mater's Board of Regents, your voice resonates as an advocate for social justice, equity and inclusion; once again illustrating a unity of spirit with the Sisters of Mercy and their Critical Concerns.

For your leadership, empathy and commitment to positive change in communities across the globe, Salve Regina University hereby confers upon you, Kathy Behrens, as an honorary member of the Class of 2020, the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, with all its attendant rights, privileges and responsibilities on this sixteenth day of May in the year 2021.

Academic Regalia

When universities were taking form in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, they were under the jurisdiction of the Church. Most of those studying were clerks in Holy Orders, monks, or priests. They wore a habit or cloak, to which was attached a cowl or hood. This could be pulled up over the head or thrown back, according to the weather. Gowns were necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings, and hoods served to cover the tonsured head before the use of the skull cap.

Today, the academic costume of cap, gown and hood has taken on a symbolic meaning. Colors and shapes conform to a generally accepted code and indicate the faculty conferring the degree and the kind of degree conferred. Gowns for the bachelor's degree are worn closed and are distinguished by their long, pointed sleeves. Master's degree gowns are designed to be worn open. They have very long sleeves, oblong in shape. Gowns for the doctoral degree, usually black, are also designed to be worn open and have velvet panels. Three velvet bars are stitched to the upper part of the full, bell-shaped sleeves.

Hoods are trimmed with a slim strip of velvet to indicate the specific faculty awarding the degree. The colored lining is the official color of the institution conferring the degree. Hoods may be trimmed to represent the following academic areas:

Arts, Letters, Humanities.....	White
Business Administration .....	Light Brown
Education.....	Light Blue
Fine Arts.....	Brown
Musical Arts .....	Pink
Nursing.....	Apricot
Philosophy.....	Dark Blue
Science .....	Golden Yellow
Theology.....	Scarlet

Honor Cords

Blue — Magna Cum Laude

White — Cum Laude

The Mace

The mace and its bearer represent a custom that dates back to the Middle Ages. From the sixteenth century in England and since colonial days in America, it has become a symbol of office carried by the procession leader. In the academic world, the mace signifies teaching authority.

The Salve Regina University mace was designed by Rhode Island sculptor Paul A. Cavanagh as an octagonal, formalized flower. The staff of ebony represents lignum vitae — the tree of life. A circle of eight rigid geometric forms of silver, peaked with pyramids of lapis lazuli, are representative of the Virtues. The Intellectual and Moral Virtues enable one to lead a fruitful and good life. The extending leaves of blossom deriving from the silver forms are symbolic of one's development in the world. An inner circle of leaves, in close embrace with the central form, and pistil-like cruciform with crown, suggest one's development in love of Christ and the cross.

The President's Medallion

The sterling silver medallion worn by the University President at all formal academic functions symbolizes the leadership and authority of the institution's highest office.

Handcrafted by John Cavanagh, the design is based on the University shield, which symbolizes the commitment of the Sisters of Mercy to Salve Regina University, the dedication to learning by all members of the Salve Regina community, and the unending search for wisdom that flows from the knowledge of the liberal scholar. Each link of the chain is a "Mercy Cross," with a crown superimposed over the face of each cross.

Salve Regina

Hail, Holy Queen enthroned above, O Maria!

Hail Mother of mercy and of love, O Maria!

Triumph all ye Cherubim, Sing with us ye Seraphim,

Heav'n and earth resound the hymn:

Salve, Salve, Salve, Regina!

Our life, our sweetness here below, O Maria!

Our hope in sorrow and in woe, O Maria!

Triumph all ye Cherubim, Sing with us ye Seraphim,

Heav'n and earth resound the hymn:

Salve, Salve, Salve, Regina!
