Post Master's CNE Certificate

Salve Regina University's Certified Nurse Educator (CNE) program is a post-master's certificate designed to strengthen the leadership, clinical and academic expertise of nurses who are seeking to expand their role in nursing education. Through didactic and experiential learning, we build on your previous training to provide preparation for national certification as an academic nurse educator.

PRICING

$13,860 for nurses
from partner institutions.
$14,670 for nurses
from non-partner institutions.

FLEXIBILITY

Complete the Post Master's CNE program in as little as 18 months with 18 credit hours and 240 clinical hours.

BENEFITS

Preferred tuition rate for nurses at partner institutions extends to spouses and family members as well as members of the military.

Program Benefits

Offered online and asynchronously, our post-master's certificate program addresses a growing need to train registered nurses who wish to enter the complex role of an academic nurse educator. This format offers the flexibility required for working adults while also fostering personal connections with faculty that are the hallmark of the Salve Regina experience.

Nursing Curriculum

Our certified nurse educator program utilizes a variety of teaching strategies and learning styles in academic, clinical and health care settings. It provides the evidenced-based practice, scientific knowledge, quality outcomes and leadership skills necessary to equip nurses to specialize in nursing education.
