Choose the Courses that Meet Your Professional Development Goals

The Certificate of Graduate Studies in Healthcare Administration is designed to meet the educational and career needs of individuals who are currently working in healthcare or a related area. The certificate program helps you meet your personal and professional goals through a customized curriculum. Working with guidance and approval from the program director, students select four courses from the master's in healthcare administration core curriculum (see list on page 2) that align with their interests.

Our certificate programs are directed and taught by respected healthcare professionals who blend theoretical foundations with examples from their experience in a wide variety of cybersecurity and healthcare settings. The certificate's structure develops the essential knowledge and skills within the context of the University's commitment to the Catholic tradition, based on the vision of the Sisters of Mercy, and emphasizes a sense of personal values and professional responsibility to better meet the needs of others.

Professionals who hold either a bachelor's or master's degree in any major are invited to apply. Students in good academic standing who would like to continue their studies may apply to the M.S. in Healthcare Administration degree program. Credits earned in the certificate program may be applied toward the master's degree consistent with University policy.
