

Student Rights and Responsibilities

As a student, you have the right to:

- Know what financial assistance is available to you, including all federal, state and institutional financial aid programs.
- Know the deadlines for submitting applications for applicable financial aid programs and the process required.
- Know how your financial need is determined, including how cost of attendance budgets are developed.
- Know what resources are considered in the calculation of your financial need, and how much of your need as determined by Salve Regina has been met.
- An explanation of the types of aid contained in your financial aid award as well as how to retain eligibility for those funds (if applicable).
- Request a review of your current financial situation if you meet certain criteria based on changes since filing the current aid year FAFSA application.
- Know what portion of your aid package is grant or gift aid (free), and what portion is a loan must be repaid. In addition, you have the right to know interest rates, total amount to be repaid, procedures for repayment, when repayment begins and how long you have to repay the loan.
- Know the criteria for continued financial aid eligibility, including understanding the guidelines for the determination of satisfactory academic progress as defined by the Department of Education and by Salve Regina.
- Know the method and frequency of financial aid disbursements.

As a student, you have the responsibility to:

- Be aware of your ability to pay any institutional charges based on your available financial aid and personal resources.
- Review and understand the terms and conditions of your financial aid award.
- Complete all requirements accurately, in a timely manner and by the appropriate deadlines.
- Inform the Office of Financial Aid, Business Office and Student Employment if you intend to enroll less than full time for any given term so that your aid can be properly adjusted and disbursed.

- Inform the Office of Financial Aid, Business Office and Student Employment of any outside scholarships, assistantships or additional resources that you receive.
- Fill out the FAFSA application completely and accurately. If selected for verification you will provide all requested documents in a timely manner and ensure that all submitted materials are complete and accurate. Falsification of information on application forms for federal financial assistance is considered a criminal offense, and you may be subject to penalties under the U.S. Criminal Code.
- Read and understand all forms that you are asked to submit or sign, realizing that you are legally responsible for all agreements that you sign.
- Know and comply with all policies and procedures of Salve Regina.
- Be in contact with your assigned financial aid counselor if there are any changes in your personal or family situation.
