Message from the President

Dear Friends,

A hallmark of the Salve Regina community is that we care more about the collective good than our individual gain. Every day, there are myriad examples across campus, Aquidneck Island and beyond.

You are exemplars; this year's Donor Impact Report illustrates the people and programs of Salve that you've lifted through your generosity.

Your support inspires our students, who reflect the best of Salve while also pushing us to be better. Your support inspires our faculty and staff, who are the keepers of our culture and catalysts for our growth. Your support inspires me — it is a privilege to serve you and to advance our mercy mission.

Your gifts strengthen the Salve of today and help us to envision its thriving future.

With gratitude,

Kelli J. Armstrong, Ph.D.
President
Salve Regina University

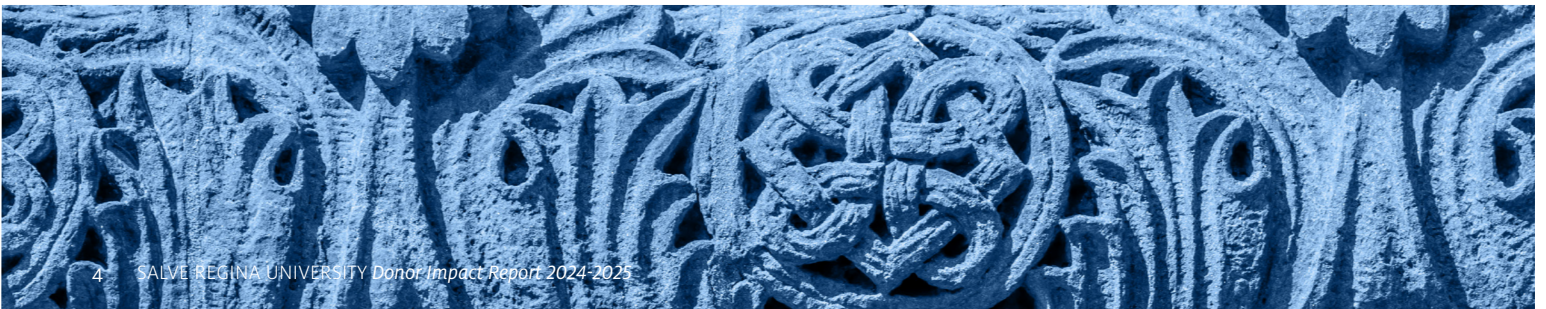

► Thank YOU

This report offers a glimpse into SOME of the things you, our donors, have made possible at Salve this past year.

As you read through the following pages, you will see concrete examples of what your generosity has realized across campus. You will hear about the latest innovations to our flagship initiative — the Salve Compass program, how scholarship assistance impacts the entirety of a student's Salve experience, the care we take to ensure our mission is infused in everything we do, the enhancements made to our academic offerings, how the Pell Center is developing our nation's future leaders, the vital support The SALVE*fund* provides to our most critical needs and how our Seahawks are leveling up in athletics.

Your commitment to our mission leaves an indelible mark on our students, our campus and the entire Salve community — now and in the future. We are so grateful.

Salve's endowment is a collection of funds that has been built by generations of donors. Many of the funds are earmarked for specific functions in keeping with our donors' wishes. These funds are pooled and invested to ensure Salve's long-term stability. Every year, we apply a portion of the income earned from our investments to the University's operating budget, in accordance with policies set by the Board of Trustees. The remaining income is reinvested to ensure the endowment will sustain Salve in perpetuity.

YOUR Gift Has Power

When you give to Salve, your gift becomes part of something larger — its reach is amplified, its impact magnified and its effects are felt far beyond the reaches of campus because what happens at Salve, does not stay at Salve. Our students bring the tenets of a mercy-inspired education out into the world — changing it for the better.

YOU are making a difference.

Our Mission. Our Moment. Salve's most ambitious fundraising campaign to date, is meeting the moment by transforming the undergraduate experience, elevating our prominence and sustaining our foundation.

Everywhere we look, we can see the effect your generosity is having on the Salve experience.

Whether we are watching the Salve Compass program come to fruition, witnessing the ever-expanding experiential learning opportunities available to students, hearing the sounds of construction ring out across campus as new student housing and our new student pavilion take shape, cheering our athletes as they rise to the challenge of playing in a new athletic conference or disbursing scholarship awards from a growing number of funds, we see and feel the impact of your belief in the power of this place we all call home and it's simultaneously humbling and exhilarating.

The success of this campaign lies in that we are all working in concert toward a common goal — shaping Salve's next chapter. Every gift makes a difference. Every member of the Salve community has a role in our story.

THE SALVE COMPASS PROGRAM

Your support fosters innovation

A quality education is more than the sum of its parts, and the Salve Compass program is one part that plays an outsized role in ensuring a Salve education is synonymous with excellence.

Your support of the Salve Compass program empowers our students to chart their educational journey with purpose. Students follow an intentional path lined with thought-provoking studio courses, experiential learning opportunities and group projects that teach them new ways of thinking and the skills necessary to design a meaningful career and purposeful life.

The Salve Compass program is a true differentiator and sets Salve apart from other institutions of higher education and it would not be possible without YOU.

Kathleen Farley, Ryan Family Executive Director of the Salve Compass program, addresses students during our first full-scale offering of Sophomore Studio.

I am leaving this experience [Compass Summer] with a lot of knowledge ... and it is the first time I feel like I actually experienced what my career would be like.

JOHN '26

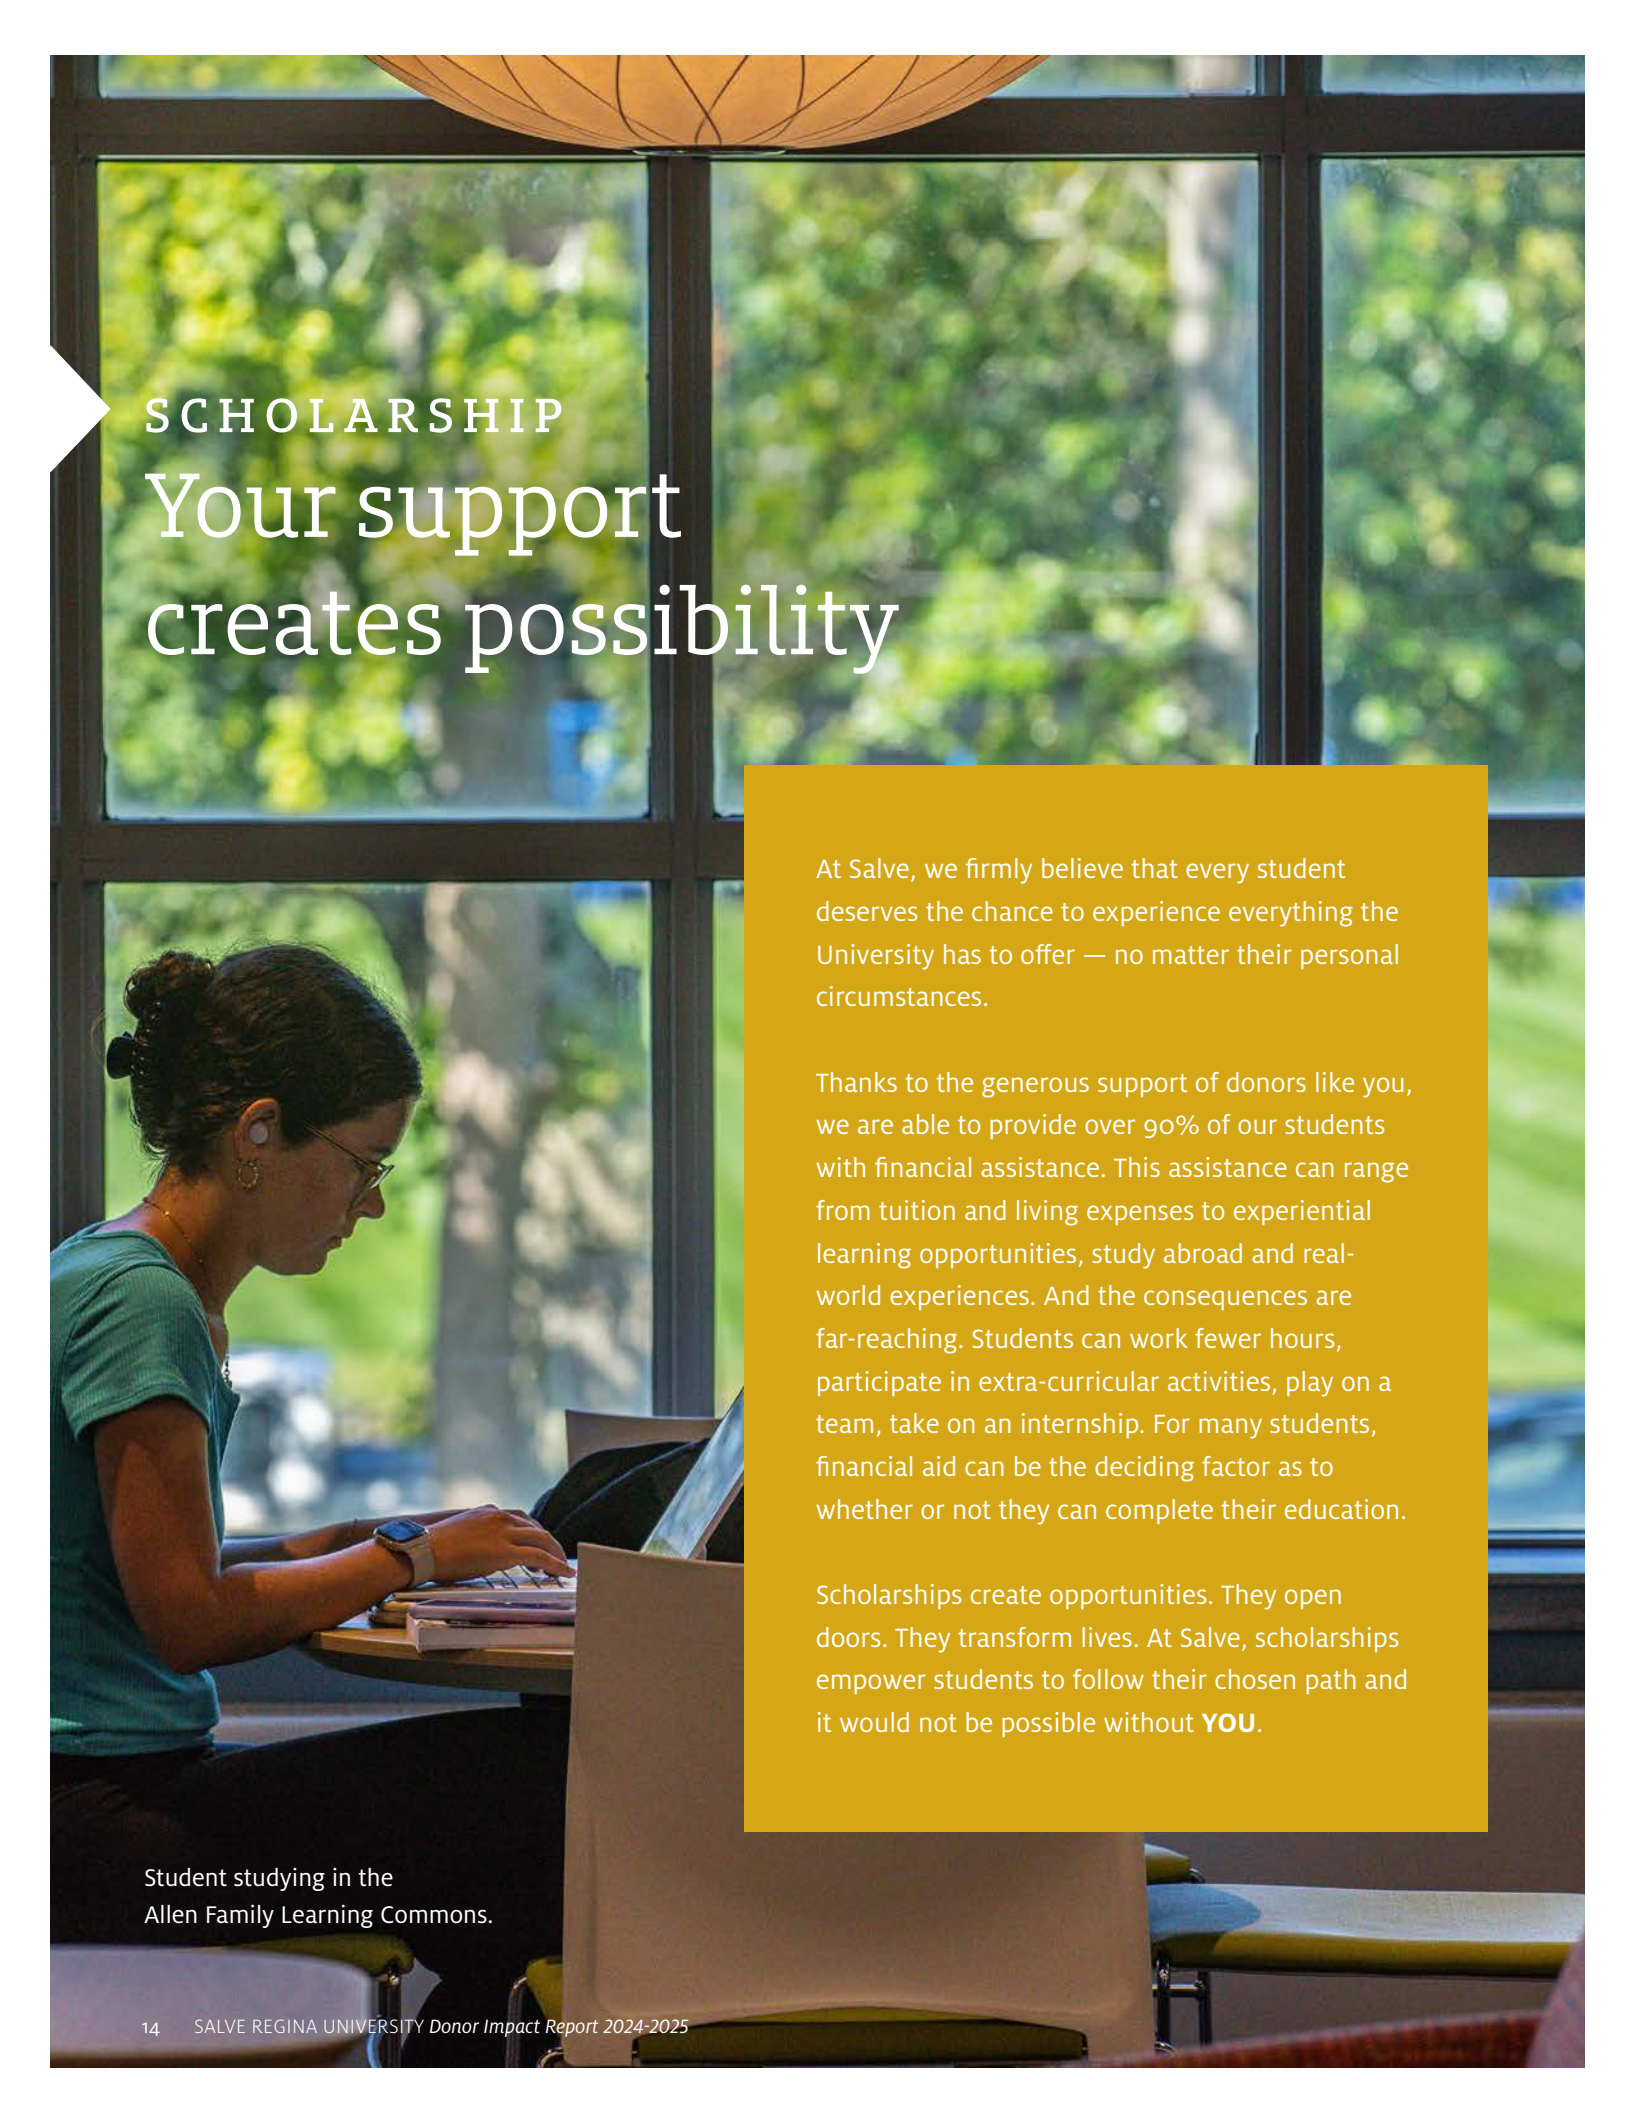

BECAUSE OF YOU:

251 students took part in Compass North, an off-campus retreat that invites them to reflect on who they are becoming. Through guided activities and conversations, students identified their core values, discovered their personal “true north,” and began shaping a vision of leadership rooted in the mercy tradition.

The First-Year Studio course was reimagined to help students take ownership of their Salve journey. 554 students mapped out their desired college experience while exploring multiple, equally meaningful paths. The course culminated with the students envisioning three distinct versions of their future — a process which encourages creativity, self-discovery and teaches them to embrace new directions.

Sophomore Studio ran at full scale for all sophomores, giving 490 students an immersive, weekend-long experience in career development. Through sessions on résumé building, interviewing, networking, business etiquette and professional communication, students gained practical skills to help them succeed beyond the classroom and walked away better prepared to pursue internships and career opportunities.

Compass summer doubled the number of sessions offered, which included: Archaeology, Preservation and Geophysics; Explore Wild Rhode Island; Jazz Dance in Newport; and Explore Boatbuilding with International Yacht Restoration School. These short-term, immersive group projects gave 97 students the chance to engage in hands-on learning while working closely with faculty. Each session offered real-world problem solving and helped students practice collaboration, adaptability and creative thinking — skills employers value.

SCHOLARSHIP

Your support creates possibility

At Salve, we firmly believe that every student deserves the chance to experience everything the University has to offer — no matter their personal circumstances.

Thanks to the generous support of donors like you, we are able to provide over 90% of our students with financial assistance. This assistance can range from tuition and living expenses to experiential learning opportunities, study abroad and real-world experiences. And the consequences are far-reaching. Students can work fewer hours, participate in extra-curricular activities, play on a team, take on an internship. For many students, financial aid can be the deciding factor as to whether or not they can complete their education.

Scholarships create opportunities. They open doors. They transform lives. At Salve, scholarships empower students to follow their chosen path and it would not be possible without YOU.

BECAUSE OF YOU

Scholarship recipients were able to:

Present their research at the University of Rhode Island's annual Summer Undergraduate Research Symposium and the 2025 Joint Mathematics Meetings in Seattle, Washington.

Gain hands-on experience working as assistant curators on the Fashion and Longing: Gilded Age Dress in New England exhibit at the Dorrence H. Hamilton Gallery.

Study abroad in 23 cities in 14 countries, on four continents.

Participate in faculty research exploring such topics as pediatric brain cancer, the economic impact of the Washington Bridge on the state of Rhode Island, Parkinson's Disease and the stories behind Newport neighborhoods.

Produce and perform the classic stage musical Meet Me in St. Louis on the Stanford White Casino Theatre stage.

Take part in our annual SRyou Student Exposition showcasing their work in dozens of disciplines.

Travel to offsite conferences and exhibitions around the country including the Student Managed Investment Fund Consortium in Chicago, Illinois where they placed 3rd out of 98 schools.

Receive assistance from our Mercy Resource Grants and The Gateway Fund, which help our most economically vulnerable students meet essential expenses that extend beyond traditional financial aid. 83 students accessed these emergency funding resources.

MISSION

Your support advances Salve's mercy mission

Our mission is at the heart of everything we do at Salve. Grounded in the mercy tradition, we remain steadfast in who we are and intentional in living out our values — ensuring that care, compassion and service are woven into experiences for our students and our community.

When you give in support of the mercy mission, you make it possible for us to carry this spirit into classrooms, throughout campus and far beyond into the greater world.

Mercy makes a difference. It changes lives — and it is needed now, more than ever. And because of YOU, Salve is able to embrace this moment with confidence and continue placing mercy at the center of all we do.

Your generosity ensures that Salve’s mission is present in all that we do. In an ever-changing world, our commitment to the tenets of the Sisters of Mercy remains constant as we work to make a positive difference and to bring this transformational vision to the world around us.

DR. THERESA LADRIGAN-WHELPLEY,
Kathleen B. Walgreen Vice President for Mission Integration

BECAUSE OF YOU:

Two Vision of Mercy Fellows carried out summer service projects focused on the critical concerns of mercy.

Three immersions provided transformative experiences centered around the issues of Earth, nonviolence and women for participants of the Mercy Immersion Program.

Six faculty continued their grant-funded research and teaching on immigration, advancing scholarship and dialogue as part of the second year of the Mercy Critical Concern Interdisciplinary Faculty Collaborative on Immigration.

Salve students continued their work with Newport’s Thompson Middle School students as a part of Thompson Academy, a program designed to spark curiosity about higher education.

Catherine’s Cupboard, Salve’s on-campus food pantry, expanded to include hygiene products, clothing and books. It has also become a hub for connecting students with vital community resources.

Salve hosted a two-day workshop focusing on issues surrounding refugee resettlement, in furtherance of our efforts to remove barriers to higher education for refugee students.

The Pathways Program celebrated a milestone as its first cohort of scholars graduated high school, with every participating senior moving on to attend a four-year college or university. This three-year college access program is transforming futures for first-generation and low-to-moderate-income students in Newport.

Four student leaders traveled to Dublin, Ireland for the Young Mercy Leadership Pilgrimage, where they honed the skills needed to be leaders of Mercy, carrying forward the values that distinguish a Salve education.

A group of students and a faculty member are gathered around a picnic table in a grassy field. The students are sitting on the benches, while the faculty member stands and speaks to them. In the background, a large suspension bridge is visible against a clear blue sky. The scene is bright and sunny, suggesting a pleasant day outdoors.

ACADEMICS

Your support enhances learning and research

Education is about the quest for knowledge. But that quest is about more than a finite destination, it is about the journey and not being afraid to explore the unknown.

Your generosity empowers students and faculty to pursue knowledge with curiosity, confidence and purpose. Because of YOU, they have access to primary source materials, the chance to participate in internships that expand learning beyond the classroom and stipends that make student-led research possible.

You enable field trips and experiential learning opportunities while also enriching current programs and opening doors to new and emerging fields of study. Every gift fuels exploration, innovation and the kind of hands-on learning that transforms futures.

14 students organized the inaugural We Mean Business Day conference with more than 500 attendees and featuring 50 speakers.

The entire [business] department is beyond excited, as the endowment of the department and chair empowers us to dream bigger. It invites our faculty, students and community partners to think more creatively, engage more fully and reach farther. We cannot wait to share the incredible stories of growth, collaboration and innovation that will undoubtedly emerge from the opportunities this gift has made possible.

DR. MELISSA VARAO

Inaugural Anita and Robert R. Young Chair of the Jean and David W. Wallace Department of Business and Economics

BECAUSE OF YOU:

The establishment of the Jean and David W. Wallace Department of Business and Economics is already creating new opportunities for students and faculty.

The Anita and Robert R. Young Department Chair was established in the Jean and David W. Wallace Department of Business and Economics with Dr. Melissa Varao serving in the inaugural role.

Four students participated in the inaugural summer iteration of the Cliff Walk Ambassadors program, an interdisciplinary experiential learning program that combines academics with real-world experience that students can carry forward into their careers.

26 students traveled to New York City and performed in Anastasia at Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts as part of a professional ensemble.

Students traveled to the Amazonian rainforest where they explored hidden lagoons, met local communities and experienced the culture of the Amazon.

50 special education majors paired up with 50 individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities to conduct a year-long exploration of the eco-systems, cultures and history of planet Earth through the Learning Unlimited program.

Four new interdisciplinary courses were developed by the David and Carolyn Brodsky Chair in U.S. Constitutional Democracy and Culture. Each course includes experiential learning components with a focus on community engagement and educating students on America's core democratic values.

Salve's two Claiborne Pell Research Fellows participated on research teams with faculty and explored Newport past and present. A former Fellow presented a symposium and poster at BABAT, the oldest and largest conference for behavior analysis in New England.

THE PELL CENTER

Your support helps us change the world

The Pell Center for International Relations and Public Policy was founded to act in furtherance of Senator Claiborne Pell's belief that the work of politics is to translate ideas into action to help people — we don't just study the world, we try to change it by fostering civic participation to make the world a better place.

By supporting the Pell Center, you have made it possible for us to deepen our study of today's political landscape through initiatives such as Nationhood Lab and Voices of Value, while also expanding efforts to inspire the next generation in civic engagement. At the same time, your generosity enables us to share stories that matter — through lectures, meaningful convenings and compelling media that bring important ideas to a wider audience.

The Pell Center is cementing its place in the national discourse and serving as a catalyst for change and that would not be happening without YOU.

BECAUSE OF YOU:

Salve Regina University and the U.S. Naval War College convened the second annual Forum at Newport on climate change and national security.

The Voices of Value Survey continued its work to seek understanding around the nuances of political polarization, local media consumption habits and local support for various political actors.

Nationhood Lab released The Story of America: A rebooted civic national narrative for the United States, a revised national narrative for the 21st century that reflects who we are as a people and recognizes and incorporates our past failures.

The Pell Center's Spring Event Series explored such thought-provoking topics as: The Rediscovery of America with Ned Blackhawk; World War II at 80: Reflecting on its Legacies; America's First Ladies: Policy Making from the Velvet Pulpit with Mary Anderson, PhD, David and Carolyn Brodsky Chair in U.S. Constitutional Democracy and Culture; and Examining the State of American Democracy Today with Professor Robert D. Putnam.

Twelve-time Telly Award-winning Story in the Public Square launched its 14th national season. The show seeks to study, celebrate and tell stories that matter.

The Summer Institute of Politics inspired participating high school students with the power of civic engagement. Students grappled with the great challenges facing the United States, the international community and their hometown.

Eleven students participated in the Nuala Pell Leadership Program for 2024-2025. The Program facilitates leadership development with an emphasis on public service and a highlight of the year is a trip to Washington, D.C. to meet with national and local leaders and visit prominent national landmarks.

Nationhood Lab released The Story of America: A rebooted civic national narrative for the United States.

Everything that we do on campus and for the broader Newport community exists because of the support we receive from our great donors.

The SALVE*fund*

Your support transforms the Salve experience every day

The SALVE*fund* provides immediate and essential resources that touch every corner of campus life. Your gifts fuel student success in the classroom, on the playing field, in the arts and through service to the community — while strengthening the mercy mission that inspires and guides every Seahawk along their journey at Salve.

What makes The SALVE*fund* extraordinary is the power of collective giving. Each gift becomes part of something greater, ensuring that Salve can adapt quickly to the evolving needs of its students and faculty and seize new opportunities as they arise. This ongoing impact is only possible because of YOU.

My educational pursuits would not be possible without the generous support from your scholarship. Thank you for enabling me to pursue my dreams.

KATHERINA '26

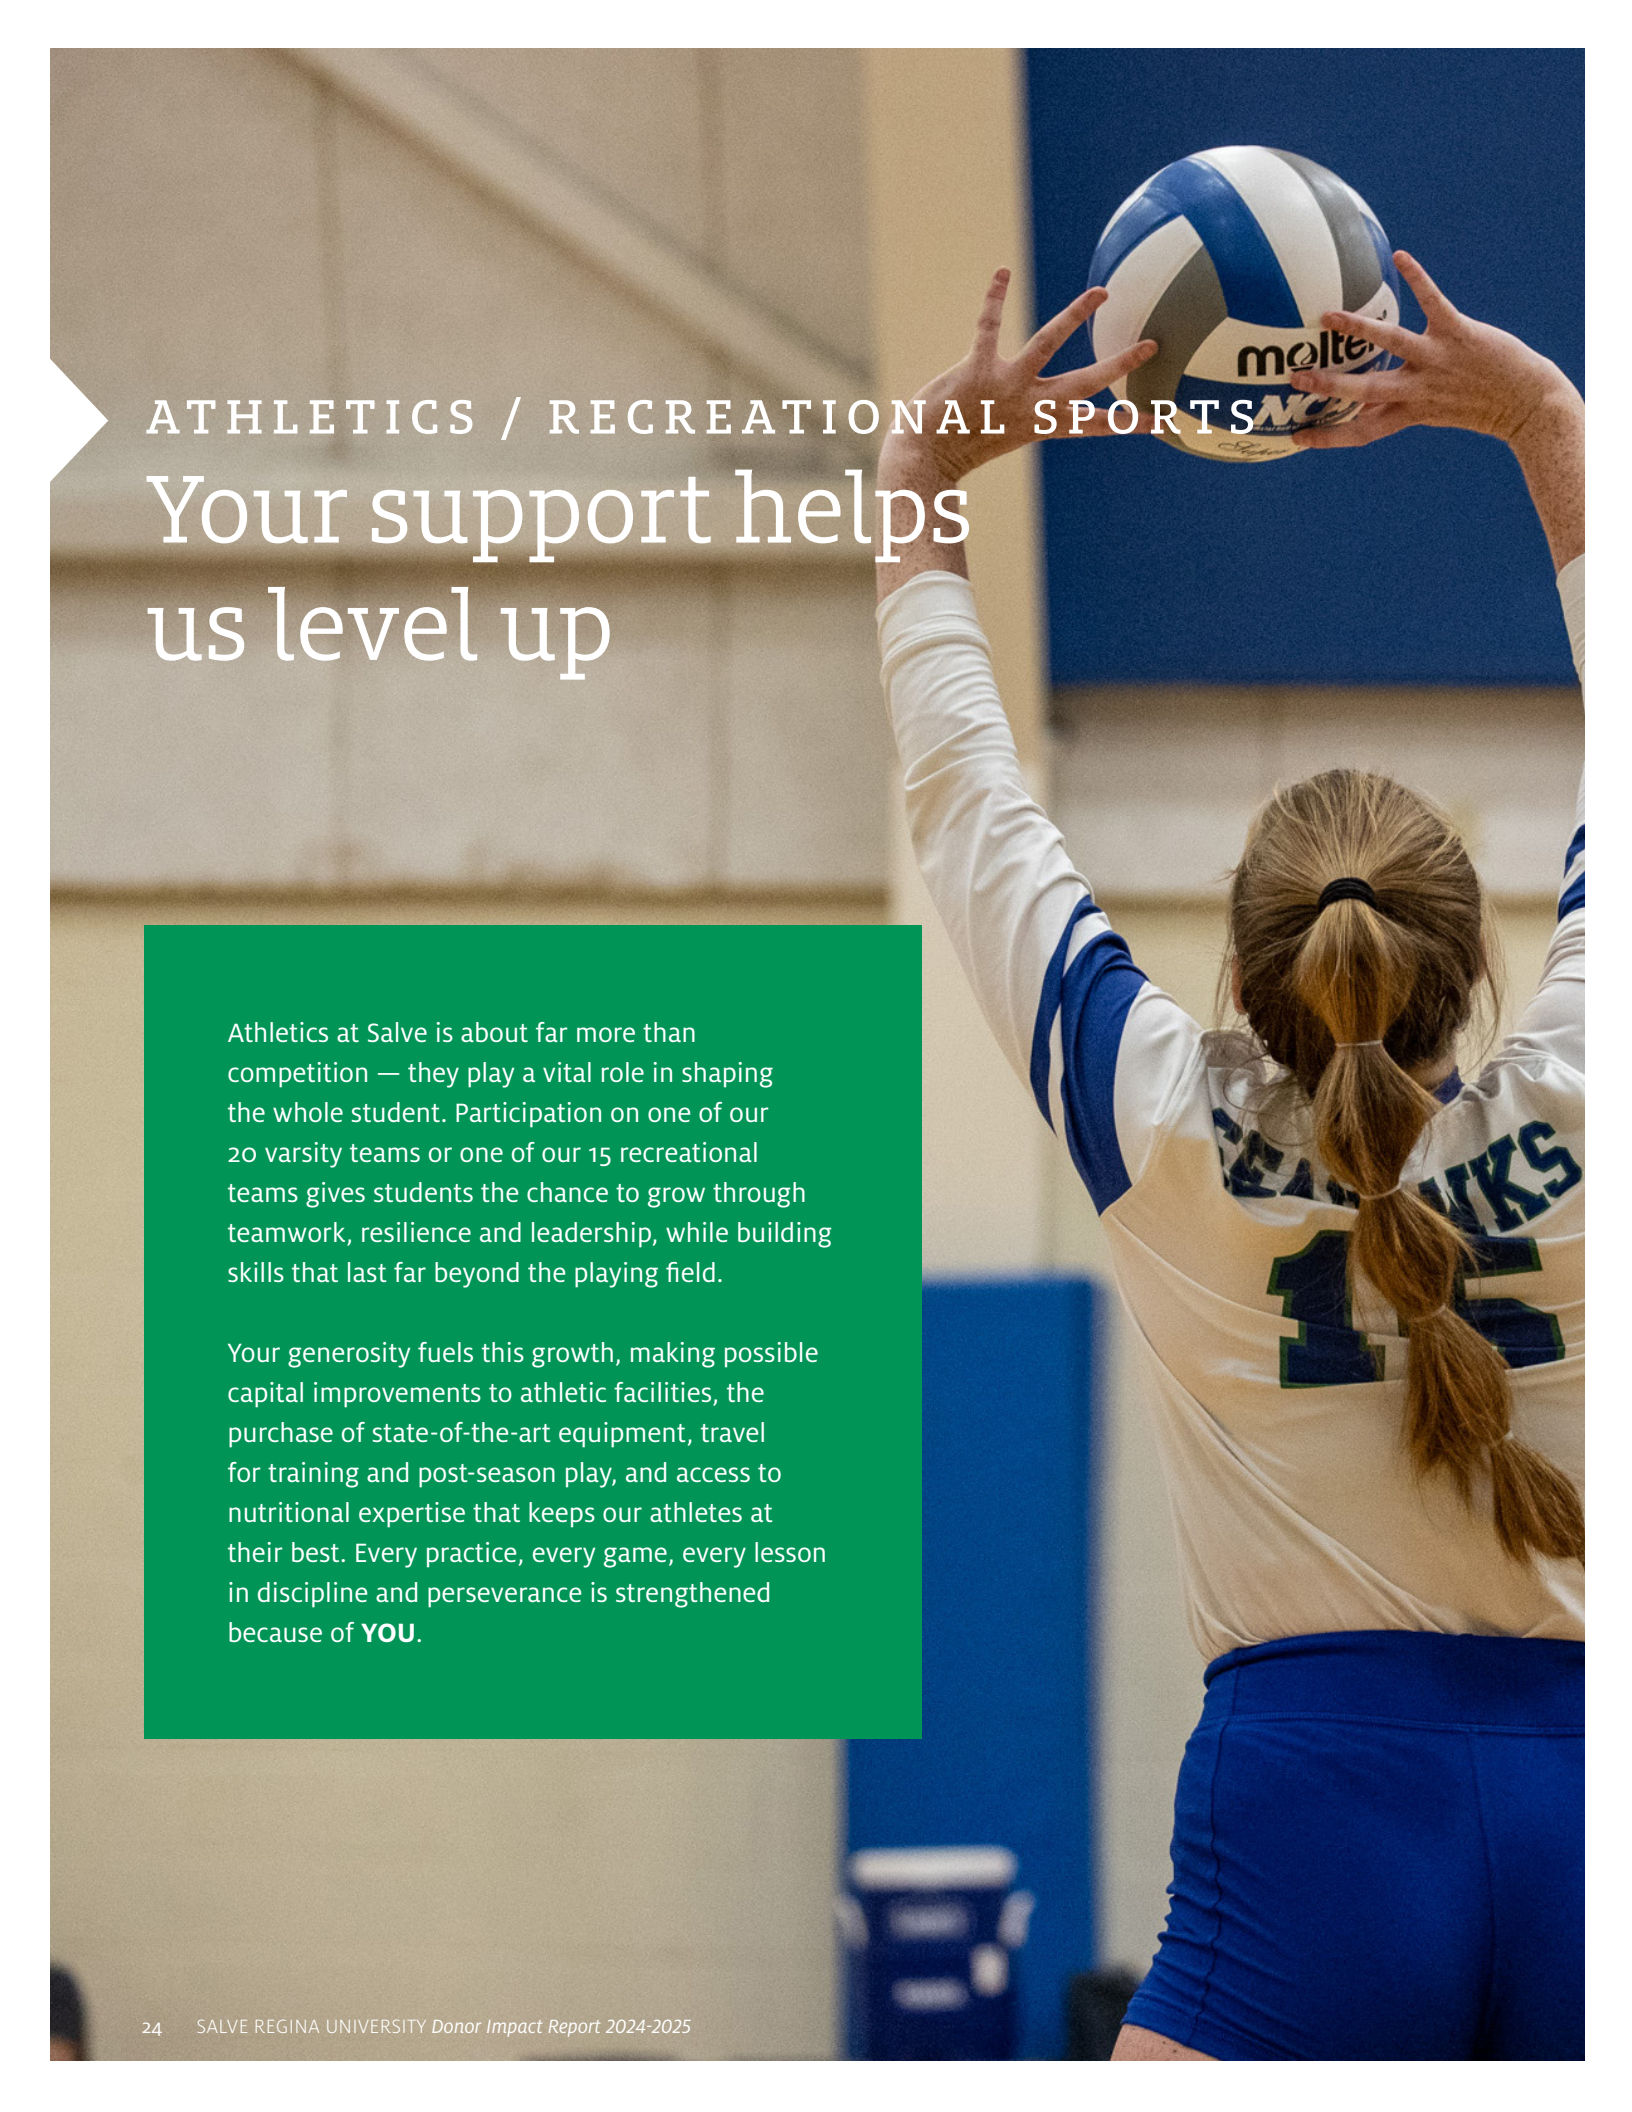

▲ Over 875 donors participated in Salve Day of Giving and unlocked $137,850 in challenge funds.

▲ With the help of Sigma Phi Sigma members, our annual Luminaria fundraiser, in support of The SALVEfund, featured 253 tributes and 100 student lanterns honoring what matters to them.

▲ 243 donors unlocked $35,000 in challenge funds for our Mercy in Action campaign which took place in the month of June.

ATHLETICS / RECREATIONAL SPORTS

Your support helps us level up

Athletics at Salve is about far more than competition — they play a vital role in shaping the whole student. Participation on one of our 20 varsity teams or one of our 15 recreational teams gives students the chance to grow through teamwork, resilience and leadership, while building skills that last far beyond the playing field.

Your generosity fuels this growth, making possible capital improvements to athletic facilities, the purchase of state-of-the-art equipment, travel for training and post-season play, and access to nutritional expertise that keeps our athletes at their best. Every practice, every game, every lesson in discipline and perseverance is strengthened because of YOU.

BECAUSE OF YOU:

We successfully competed in our second year of NEWMAC, with ten teams advancing to post-season play.

Teams were able to purchase improved training equipment.

Upgrades were made to uniforms, travel gear and equipment.

Student-athletes benefited from sponsored events featuring prominent professional athletes that addressed the issue of mental health and athletics — conversations that inspired resilience and reaffirmed that our students' well-being is as important as performance.

Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can.

CATHERINE MCAULEY, Founder, Sisters of Mercy

Thank you

Dear Salve Family,

Salve Regina has experienced a truly remarkable year — due to the heartfelt generosity of you, our cherished community of donors. Each day, in countless meaningful ways, you have shown your unwavering belief in the power of our mercy mission.

Together, you set new records for giving through our Seahawks Take Flight and Salve Day of Giving campaigns. You returned to campus for Christmas at Ochre Court and Reunion Weekend, proudly wearing your mercy sweaters and carrying your Salve totes. Whether as first-time donors through the Senior Class Gift, or as longstanding supporters whose commitment we are proud to recognize as part of the Salve Loyalty Society, your dedication has inspired us all.

It is with great joy that we share these pages filled with so many examples of the real difference you made for our Salve students, faculty and the community. Because of you, our mission shines brighter than ever and it is indeed our moment.

Kathleen J. McArdle '70 +

As a junior here at Salve, I've tried to put in as much work as I can toward achieving a goal that none of my family was able to do, receiving my degree. It has not been easy at all, but I invested myself into this process as it is allowing me to pave my future.

My Salve experience would not have been the same without the generosity of our donors. College is not only about academics; it's the experiences and relationships that truly define your four years. For me, that journey has been enriched by the incredible clubs, organizations and student activities that bring our campus to life.

The impact of donor support for our Seahawks cannot be overstated. It is this generosity that affords our athletes the opportunity to face the highest level of competition by funding out-of-region travel, advanced sports-specific training equipment and makes facilities upgrades like our new scoreboard possible. Simply put, the donor support of Salve Athletics is essential to the student-athlete experience.
