John Toracinta '21 (MBA)
Men's Apparel Product Manager & Tour, FootJoy / Founder/Owner, NOSOLO BRAND

"What made the biggest impact at Salve was the personal connection with the professors and the supportive, tight-knit learning community. The faculty weren't just teaching — they were actively helping me apply what I was learning to real-world challenges in both my entrepreneurial journey and my professional career. That hands-on, values-driven approach sharpened my problem-solving, expanded my leadership abilities, and pushed me to think bigger about how I could make a meaningful impact."

Julia Turnbull '23 (MBA)
University relations and TA specialist, Kautex

"I wanted to find a program that not only offered academic excellence but also aligned with my values. Salve Regina stood out for its commitment to fostering compassionate leaders who can make a positive impact in their communities. The emphasis on ethical leadership has set me apart, enabling me to lead with integrity and positively impact my organization and community. The Salve MBA program has helped me stay true to my values and integrate them into my work."
