Healthcare Administration

Customize Courses to Meet Your Professional Goals

Health care is a rapidly changing field, with a constant demand for innovative and dynamic professionals. Salve Regina University's graduate certificate in healthcare administration provides opportunities for motivated individuals to enhance their health care careers and expand their employment options.

Our four-course certificate program explores the latest trends and develops the professional competencies expected by top health care organizations. The curriculum is flexible, encompassing marketing, human resources management, finance, policy, law, ethics and other key topics so students can tailor their coursework to meet their educational, professional and personal goals.

All courses are taught by respected professionals who blend theoretical foundations with personal experiences from their areas of expertise, all while respecting the University's commitment to the mercy tradition, which emphasizes a sense of personal values and professional responsibility to better meet the needs of others.

Who Will Benefit?

Professionals who hold a bachelor's or master's degree in any major are invited to apply. Students in good academic standing who wish to continue their studies may apply to the M.S. in healthcare administration program. Credits earned in the certificate program may be applied toward the master's degree consistent with University policy.

Our graduate certificate is designed for current and aspiring:

- Assisted living residence administrators
