

Self-Guided Walking Tour

Welcome to Salve Regina University's stunning oceanside campus in Newport, Rhode Island! Set along the iconic Cliff Walk, Salve's 80-acre landscape connects our 2,100 undergraduate students to remarkable hands-on learning across 60+ majors and minors.

Please allow approximately 45 minutes for this self-guided tour and follow along by scanning this QR code or visiting salve.edu/walking-tour.

Please note: Some buildings have limited hours, and residence halls are not open to the public. For an inside look at our facilities, we invite you to register for a guided campus tour.

1 Ochre Court

16 Ochre Point Ave.

Ochre Court is our flagship administration building, home to admissions, financial aid, the bursar, the president's office and more. It's also a lively gathering space, hosting student events like dances, networking nights, fundraisers and concerts.

2 Miley and Walgreen Halls

7 Ochre Point Ave.

Miley and Walgreen are two of our traditional residence halls. Miley is also a central hub of campus life, housing our main dining hall, campus bookstore, Starbucks and offices for counseling services, health services and residence life.

3 Rodgers Recreation Center

63 Lawrence Ave.

Rodgers is our athletics and recreation facility. Salve offers 20 Division III varsity sports along with a thriving club sports program, intramurals, fitness classes and student organizations for yoga, running, outdoor adventures and more.

4 Antone Academic Center

56 Lawrence Ave.

Antone is one of three main academic buildings on campus. Here, you'll find classrooms, labs, performance spaces and studios that support programs like art, dance, historic preservation and theater.

5 Gerety Hall and Papitto Pavilion

51 Lawrence Ave.

Gerety is a hub for campus life, student organizations and support services like the Dean of Students Office, LGBTQ+ Center and Student Engagement. Next to Gerety is the Papitto Pavilion, a new space for student life and activities.

6 McKillop Library

25 Ochre Point Ave.

Home to the Salve Compass program, Academic Center for Excellence and Starbucks café, McKillop is a busy place where students study, hang out with friends, grab a bite to eat and find the resources they need for success.

7 Unique Housing Options

41 Ochre Point Ave.

Many of our historic buildings provide a distinctive living experience. Residence halls are close to academic and common areas on campus, and downtown Newport, Cliff Walk and the beach are nearby.

8 O'Hare Academic Building and McAuley Hall

36 Ochre Point Ave.

O'Hare and McAuley are academic hubs with classrooms, labs and faculty offices representing a range of majors. O'Hare's common area is also a gathering place where students study, meet with friends or refuel at Jazzman's Bakery or Sandella's Flatbread Cafe.

9 Our Lady of Mercy Chapel and Angelus Hall

22 Ochre Point Ave.

The chapel offers Catholic Masses during the academic year and is home to the Center for Spiritual Life and the Center for Community Engagement and Service. Angelus houses our music program and features rehearsal and recording studios along with individual practice rooms.

10 Young Building

518 Bellevue Ave.

Home to the Pell Center for International Relations and Public Policy, Young offers classroom and event spaces and is also a residence hall for students. It sits along the trolley route and is a short walk from our main campus.
