Why does the bill include two insurance fees?

Personal Property Insurance: Salve Regina offers supplemental personal property insurance through National Student Services. The plan offers varying amounts of coverage and deductibles for an annual premium.

University Health Plans (Medical):

- $1,995 for year charged in Fall
- Required by state of RI to ensure all full-time undergraduates are insured in a comparable policy
- Option to complete enrollment form for coverage beginning August 15th at <https://www.universityhealthplans.com>
- Option to waive by August 1st at <https://www.universityhealthplans.com>
- For HIPPA privacy, this is separate from Health Services or Athletics insurance forms

Dewar (Tuition Protection):

- $175 per semester for on-campus; $131 per semester for off-campus
- Salve Regina offers an insurance plan that guarantees a tuition and room and board refund in cases of physical illness (85 percent reimbursement) and/or mental illness (85 percent reimbursement) any time during the semester
- All full-time undergraduate students are automatically enrolled
- Student cannot receive a grade for the term and separate from SRU before finals
- Option to waive at <https://www.tuitionprotection.com/salve> by August 1st

When is payment due?

- August 1st for Fall (bills were made available on June 18th)
- December 15th for Spring (bills available by Thanksgiving break)
- $400 late fee (per term) if sufficient payment arrangements have not been made
 - Accounts will be sent to collections if remains delinquent or not enrolled in a past due payment plan after six months
- Request for a $500 returning student deposit sent in April with a May 1st due date
