Welcome from the Director of Safety and Security

On behalf of the members of the Salve Regina Office of Safety and Security, I would like to extend to you our greetings. The safety and well-being of our students, staff, faculty, and visitors are our top priority. Each year, we publish the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, or more commonly known as the Clery Act, to provide you with essential information regarding the University’s safety services, programs, and policies as well as occurrences of crime on and around our campus. The information is based on the previous calendar year. Along with the support of other departments, the men and women of the Office of Safety and Security are dedicated to maintaining a safe and pleasant environment to live, work, and learn. This publication is but a small part of our effort to keep our campus community informed. We encourage you to review it carefully. Your comments and suggestions are always welcome.

Annual Security Report

Overview
The information in this publication is in compliance with requirements set forth under the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act of 1990 (Title II - Public Law 101-542) and the 2008 Campus Safety Disclosure Responsibilities required by the Higher Education Opportunity Act (Public Law 110-315). This report is updated on an annual basis and is available to all University faculty, staff, students and visitors. This report will also be provided to any applicant for enrollment or employment upon request. Compliance with these provisions does not constitute a violation of section 444 of the General Education Provisions Act (20 U.S.C. 1232g), commonly known as the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA).

What is the Clery Act?
Signed into law in 1990, the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) is a federal law that requires colleges and universities to disclose certain timely and annual information about campus crime and security policies. All post-secondary public and private institutions participating in federal student aid programs must adhere to these regulations.

In April 1986, Jeanne Clery's life ended tragically when another student raped and murdered her in her residence hall room at Lehigh University. Alarmed at the lack of transparency around crime and violence on college campuses, Jeanne's parents committed themselves to create substantial change.

Preparing the Annual Security Report
In preparing our annual disclosure of crime statistics, it is Salve Regina University's Office of Safety and Security's policy to collect information reported directly to us and also to formally request information about crimes and disciplinary referrals from Campus Security Authorities (campus officials with significant responsibility for student and campus activities). In addition, we collect statistics from local law enforcement with jurisdiction in areas within Salve Regina's Clery geography.

All statistics are reviewed by the University's Clery Compliance Team for accuracy and then forwarded to the Director of Safety and Security for final review and approval. Once approved, statistics are submitted electronically to the Department of Education. Prior to October 1st of every year, the Director of Safety and Security sends an email notification to the entire Salve Regina University community, announcing that the report is available. This email contains a brief description of the information contained in the report, a direct web link to the report and where hard copies of the report may be obtained on campus. This report further contains the University's Annual Fire Safety Report, also available on the Safety and Security website and through the link provided in the annual notification to the community.

Campus Safety and Security
The Office of Safety and Security is located in Tobin Hall (167 Webster Street) situated between Miley Hall and the Rodgers Recreation Center. The office provides services to the campus community 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. The office staff consists of a Director, Assistant Director, Administrative Assistant to the Director, Transportation Coordinator, ten student employee receptionist/dispatchers and fourteen uniform security officers.

Authority
University security officers work to prevent crime, provide high-visibility security patrols, and respond quickly and effectively to University needs on campus only. Although there are several public intervening streets throughout campus, those public streets are patrolled and the laws enforced by the Newport Police Department. University security officers maintain jurisdiction and control over all university owned property adjacent to the public streets within our campus community. Salve Regina University Safety and Security Officers are non-sworn law enforcement personnel, do not carry firearms and do not have arrest powers. The employment procedures for security officers comply with federal and state regulations pertaining to criminal history records information. New applicants for the position of security officer must successfully complete a Rhode Island approved psychological test and are subject to a nationwide record check.
Reporting a Crime or Other Emergency

Salve Regina University encourages students and other community members to report all crimes voluntarily and on a confidential basis if desired, for inclusion in the institution’s annual crime statistics. If you decide to report a crime, every effort will be made to keep the identity of the victim protected.

Crimes and other Emergencies should be reported to the Office of Safety and Security at extension 5555 from a campus telephone or (401) 341-2325 from an outside telephone or dial 911. Non-emergencies should be reported to the Office of Safety and Security at extension 5500 from a campus phone or (401) 341-2325 from an outside phone.

Complaints may also be made in person at the Office of Safety and Security 24/7. Crime victims may also file a criminal complaint directly with the Newport Police Department located at 120 Broadway, or by calling (401) 847-1212. Otherwise, the crime or other emergency may be reported to the police department in the city or town where the incident occurred.

If you are not comfortable contacting the Office of Safety and Security or the Newport Police, you may contact a Campus Security Authority (CSA). CSAs are campus staff, faculty and students whose job functions make them significantly responsible for students and student activities. Sometimes victims and witnesses of a crime are hesitant to talk to a police officer. CSAs are not investigators of crime, they help collect crime report information for the University. CSAs have an important function to immediately forward reports of crime to the Office of Safety and Security. A CSA’s report may be the basis for determining if there is a serious or continuing threat to the safety of our campus. Some examples of CSAs include: Residence Life staff, Dean of Students, Student Activities, Athletics staff and coaches, Human Resources, Club Advisors and Campus Security. In 2020, the Director of Safety and Security provided University CSA training for 154 University community members who qualified.

Response

Upon reporting a crime, the matter will immediately be investigated by the Office of Safety and Security and/or the Newport Police. Upon discovery of the identity of those responsible, the matter will either be further investigated by Safety and Security and the Office of the Dean of Students or by the Newport Police, depending upon the complainant’s willingness to pursue the complaint with law enforcement authorities.

Students are encouraged to report any incidents of abuse, assault, or harassment to the Title IX Coordinator, the Office of Residence Life, the Office of Safety and Security, the Dean of Students’ Office, and/or local law enforcement. Staff is available 24 hours a day to provide immediate support and make arrangements for emergencies and/or counseling services. It is important to remember that prompt reporting is vital to the preservation of evidence that may substantiate charges.

The University encourages anyone who is the victim or witness to any crime to accurately and promptly report the incident to the Office of Safety and Security and/or the Newport Police, even when the victim of a crime elects not to or is unable to make such a report.

Reporting a crime provides accurate and complete statistical reports and aids in providing timely warning notices to the community, when appropriate. Faculty, staff, and students who are considered to be Campus Security Authorities are required to forward any report of a crime on campus to the Office of Safety and Security for further investigation and in recording statistics when the victim of a crime elects or is unable to make a report. Incidents reported to the Office of Safety and Security that fall into one of the required reporting classifications will be disclosed as a statistic in the annual report.
Statement on voluntary, confidential and anonymous reporting

There are occasions when victims of crime wish to report the crime, but do not want to give their name and/or do not want to pursue action through the criminal justice or university conduct system. If you are not comfortable reporting a crime or security related concern directly to Safety and Security or the Newport Police, you may choose to file a report anonymously with a Campus Security Authority or at the Office of Safety and Security. You may file an anonymous report in person or through the RAVE anonymous tip line. If you were sexually assaulted and do not wish to file a formal complaint, you may choose to fill out a University Sexual Misconduct Anonymous Reporting Form. These forms are available online as well as Health Services, Counseling Services and the Office of Safety and Security. All anonymous reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics for the institution. Filing this form will not result in an investigation.

You may not recall all of the facts associated with a particular incident. Provide the information as you recall it when completing this form. Please feel free to attach further documentation if more space is needed. A person who has been a victim of sexual assault may submit this form without identifying him or herself.

Counselors and Clergy

A victim can also confidentially discuss a crime or incident with Health Services, a mental health counselor or the University Chaplain, when acting as such, are not considered to be a campus security authority and are not required to report crimes for inclusion into the annual disclosure of crime statistics. As a matter of policy, they are encouraged, if and when they deem appropriate to inform persons being counseled or treated of the procedure to report crimes on a voluntary basis for inclusion into the annual crime statistics.

A Professional Counselor is a person whose official responsibilities include providing mental health counseling to members of the institution’s community and who is functioning within the scope of his or her license or certification. University Chaplains maintain a privilege of confidentiality when acting in their official role of clergy, but not when acting in the capacity of another title on campus (ie: professor, club advisor, etc…).

Health Services, Mental health counselors and University Chaplains, if and when they deem it appropriate, are encouraged by the University to inform the persons they are counseling of the procedures to report a crime to the Office of Safety and Security or the Newport Police. However, it is made clear to the student that the final decision to report or not report is left up to the student.

A record of the anonymous cases that University Counseling Services works with each year are recorded with no names attached to the data. This information is later forwarded to the Office of Safety and Security to assist with accurate reporting statistics for the annual security report.

Services and Publications Provided by the Office of Safety and Security

The Office of Safety and Security has published several documents pertaining to campus safety and security.

Emergency Reference Guide
Contains the recommended action steps to be followed during the occurrence of specific emergencies that are more likely to occur in the normal workplace environment. See link at the bottom of this page.

Emergency Medical Services Policy
The Emergency Medical Services is a component of the Office of Safety and Security. Safety and Security/EMT Officers are licensed with the Rhode Island Department of Health, who has granted our organization an ‘Ambulance Non Transport’ service license.

Emergency Response Plan
Establishes the Crisis Management Team and recommended action steps for administrators to manage larger campus emergencies.

Transportation Services

Fifteen-Passenger Safety Course
A manual designed to educate those who transport members of the University to various on and off-campus events. The course entails a discussion regarding safety issues while operating the vehicle and an actual road test.

Department of Safety and Security Policies, Regulations and Procedures Manual
A one hundred and eighteen page document divided into twelve chapters establishing written directives pertaining to standards of conduct and operating procedures.

Shuttle Service
Salve Regina University provides regularly scheduled shuttle service to and from designated bus stops around campus throughout the academic year on two – 29 passenger shuttle buses. The University shuttle also provides transportation off campus to four Newport locations at certain scheduled days and times. The shuttle operates seven days a week from 7pm to 12:00 am Sun-Wed and 7pm to 1:00am Thurs.-Sat. Shuttle stops are conveniently located on campus public streets near our residence halls, academic buildings and other university facilities. Student IDs are required to board all buses and a maximum of two guests per student are allowed. Each guest must be accompanied by a Salve Regina student at any given time.

For their safety, Salve Regina University asks that students follow these guidelines when riding the shuttles:
- Stand away from curb as buses approach.
- Don’t walk or run into the street when buses are in traffic.
- Treat drivers with courtesy and respect.
- No open food or drink containers.
- Before departing the bus, students should check their seat for all personal items.

Locations of shuttle stops and the ability to track the shuttles are possible through the University “Smart-Traxx” feature. This mobile application is available to all students and University personnel free of charge.

Medical Transports
Security officers will transport faculty, staff and students on-campus 24/7 who are in need of assistance due to a medical condition. This usually entails those who are on crutches or other similar conditions. If requested, we provide transportation to the University Health Services during normal working hours and if needed to Newport Hospital after hours.

Residence Hall Security
Statement Addressing Access to Campus Facilities

I. Residence Halls
All residence halls are locked 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Access to residence halls is restricted to residents and guests. A guest may access any residential facility if a housing resident accompanies them. The resident is responsible for escorting their guest(s) at all times, and for explaining housing rules and regulations to each guest.

All on campus residents are provided with a key or combination code for their room and outside doors of their hall. Keys may be metal or electronic swipe access cards or a combination of both. Outside doors to residence halls should never be propped open, and malfunctioning doors should be reported to the Office of Safety and Security. All residence hall exterior doors are equipped with alarms and will sound an alarm at the Office of Safety and Security if they are left ajar or forced open. Residents are advised to lock their rooms whenever they leave and to carry their key/access card at all times. All residence hall keys remain the property of the university, and duplication of residence hall keys is prohibited.

It is against residence hall policy for people to have residence hall keys that were issued in someone else’s name or to possess the combination code to any student’s room, other than their own. If a resident loses his or her key or if their code is compromised, the lock on the room door is changed at the resident’s expense. It is the responsibility of the resident to notify the Office of Safety and Security or the Office of Residence Life if keys have been lost. Residents should never allow strangers to follow them through locked security doors into their residence hall.

Residence Hall Maintenance:
Residents are responsible for reporting to the Office of Residence Life, Office of Safety and Security or Office of Facilities any issues that may arise within their rooms. If an issue is found after hours or on weekends that affects the health or safety of residents it must be immediately reported to the Office of Safety and Security. If the on duty Residence Life staff or Safety and Security cannot remedy the situation then the on call maintenance person will attend to the concern.

II. Campus Buildings
Members of the campus community have access to most campus buildings and facilities during regular business and class hours (Monday – Friday, from 7am to 9pm) and for scheduled classes and events on Saturdays and Sundays, excluding most holidays. The Office of Safety and Security is responsible for locking and unlocking designated university buildings and for patrols of the campus and buildings. If assistance is needed in gaining authorized entry outside of business hours to a university building, please call the Office of Safety and Security at 401-341-2325.

Statement Addressing Maintenance of Facilities and Security

I. Lighting
Exterior lighting is essential to creating a safe campus environment. Parking lots, pedestrian walkways and most campus building exteriors are well lit all night long. The Office of Safety and Security, Residence Life and the Office of Facilities work together to identify any lighting failures. All community members are encouraged to report any exterior lighting problems by contacting the Office of Safety and Security, Facilities or Residence Life.

II. Trees, Vines, and Shrubs
Campus grounds-keepers trim trees, vines, shrubs, and other vegetation on a regular basis to maintain campus security. Obstructing vegetation is trimmed away from pedestrian walkways, building entrances, windows, and lighting fixtures. All community members are encouraged to report any specific concerns regarding vegetation to Facilities Grounds Department at 401-341-2274 or the Office of Safety and Security at 401-341-2325.

III. Doors and Locks
Salve Regina University Safety and Security Officers maintain constant patrols of the exterior and interior of campus buildings throughout the night, on weekends and during holidays. These officers report door lock and security hardware failures to Facilities on a daily basis.
Emergency Telephones
There are twenty-nine emergency telephones on campus with direct contact to the Office of Safety and Security. Thirteen emergency telephones are free-standing and strategically placed in areas that traditionally have a high concentration of foot traffic. These freestanding phones are identified with a blue light. The remaining sixteen emergency telephones are located at the entrances to residence halls or administrative buildings. Emergency telephones, which can be used to report any type of emergency, are checked monthly by Safety and Security to ensure they are working properly. Records of these monthly inspections are kept for a period of ten years.

Security Monitoring
The Office of Safety and Security monitors campus intrusion and fire alarms, as well as residence hall card access with the help of a computerized monitoring system. Security also has the ability to review video surveillance footage from more than 150 surveillance cameras on campus. Newport Police and Fire communications are also monitored.

Local and State Inter-Agency Relationships
Safety and Security maintains a close working relationship with the Newport Police and Fire Departments, Rhode Island State Police and the State Fusion Center, as well as with the Rhode Island Emergency Management Agency.

Maintaining effective communications with these agencies allows us to be informed of issues regarding crimes committed in the area and joint training opportunities. We also maintain direct radio communications with the Newport Police in the event of an emergency occurring on campus. The Director of Safety and Security also meets monthly with the security directors for all the other Rhode Island colleges and universities keeping informed as to events occurring throughout the state.

The Office of Safety and Security and the Office of the Dean of Students collaborate with the Newport Police Department during investigations of alleged criminal offenses that occur on campus, providing criminal investigators with the necessary information required to perform a thorough investigation. Salve Regina University does not have any off-campus student organizations, however, the Newport Police Department Community Policing Unit closely monitors off-campus student residences for criminal activity and shares that information with the Office of the Dean of Students to assist with the University conduct process for such violations. The Director of Safety and Security meets regularly with the Administrative Staff of the Newport Police Department and is working on the establishment of a written Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with their department.

Lost and Found
Cell phones, keys, eyeglasses and wallets are among the common items dropped off at lost and found collections, at the Office of Safety and Security. If something is lost, call the office and provide a detailed description of the item to see if it is in our possession. We will assist and help facilitate its return to the proper owner.
TIMELY WARNING
Statement Addressing Issuing Timely Warnings

A Timely Warning will be issued when the circumstances of a criminal incident support a reasonable belief that there is a serious, continuous threat to university students, staff, and other community members or guests. Such warnings are provided to students and employees in a manner that is timely, withholds the names of victims as confidential, and will aid in the prevention of similar occurrences. These warnings will be distributed for any qualifying incident discovered by the University in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Act. The Director of Safety and Security, upon gathering the facts of the incident, and with approval from the Vice President of Student Affairs will coordinate issuance of a Timely Warning/Safety Advisory when:

Timely Warnings/Safety Advisories may not be issued for the above listed crimes if the perpetrator(s) is apprehended and the ongoing threat to members of the community has been mitigated. All of the above listed crimes and any other crimes will be assessed on a case by case basis to determine if there is an ongoing or serious threat to the University community.

Dissemination methods

Upon receiving authorization, the Director of Safety and Security or his designee, will notify the Office of University Relations who will assist in the dissemination of the Timely Warning via campus wide e-mail. The University may also disseminate the information by means of social media, the University’s website, as well as University flyers and other campus notices, and the University Emergency Notification System (ENS).
SAFETY AND SECURITY CRIME PREVENTION PROGRAMS AND PROJECTS

The Office of Safety and Security believes it is more beneficial to prevent crimes than to react to them after the fact. A primary vehicle for accomplishing this goal are crime prevention programs. These programs are based upon the concepts of eliminating or minimizing criminal opportunities, whenever possible, and encouraging students and employees to be responsible for their own security and the security of others.

Salve Regina University is dedicated to crime prevention and to facilitate programs for students, staff, faculty, and the community by providing a variety of educational strategies and tips on how to protect themselves and their property. In addition to departmental programs, the Office of Safety and Security cooperates with other offices on campus, as well as local law enforcement, to present security and safety programs.

The following is a list of the crime prevention programs and projects employed by Salve Regina University:

New Student Orientation/“Safety Begins With You”
Campus safety and crime prevention materials are provided and questions are answered during orientation meetings about all aspects of campus safety. The Director of Safety and Security or his designee speaks with first year students about the dangers associated with the surrounding public streets, downtown Newport and the fact that Salve Regina University is an “open” campus with intervening public roadways permitting public access. Fire Safety information and information on the use of University Transportation is also discussed. (annually)

Personal Safety
The Offices of Residence Life, Safety and Security and the Newport Police Department, meet with freshmen resident students during sessions held within the residence halls to discuss issues pertaining to personal safety, crime and alcohol. The Newport Police discuss public safety concerns, the dangers of drinking and driving and the local ordinances against noise and liquor violations. (annually)

Campus Lighting
Salve Regina Facilities maintains the grounds with a concern for safety and security. Campus lighting is regularly surveyed by Safety and Security and Facilities personnel. Anyone noticing a safety or security problem with campus lighting should contact Facilities at (401) 341-2935. After business hours, contact Safety and Security at (401) 341-2325. (all year)

Emergency Telephones
There are twenty-nine emergency telephones on campus with direct contact to the Office of Safety and Security. Thirteen emergency telephones are free-standing and strategically placed in areas that traditionally have a high concentration of foot traffic. These free-standing phones are identified with a blue light. The remaining sixteen emergency telephones are located at the entrances to residence halls or administrative buildings. Emergency telephones, which can be used to report any type of emergency, are checked monthly by Safety and Security to ensure they are working properly. Records of these monthly inspections are kept going back ten years. (monthly)

Residence Life Security Training
Each year the Office of Safety and Security conducts a 3 hour block of training with Residence Life. In 2020, 40 Resident Advisors were trained in overall Safety and Security procedures, including: reporting procedures, duty to report as CSA’s and our multiple reporting options on campus. All RA’s also received 2 hours of Fire Safety training with the Office of Safety and the Newport Fire Department, where RAs learned how to use fire extinguishers and put out fires when needed.
Management of Aggressive Behavior (MOAB) Training
Officer Paul Larson from the Office of Safety and Security instructed 40 Resident Advisors from the Office of Residence Life on managing people with aggressive behavior. Officer Larson is a department certified Instructor in MOAB and in a collaborative effort between the Office of Safety and Security and Residence Life, this training was implemented. The course consisted of teaching strategies to Residence Life staff members in preventing and diffusing aggressive behavior. The students were taught to prepare themselves mentally, how to communicate verbally and non-verbally, listen effectively, manage the stages of conflict and the proper way in which to approach an individual if needed. (annually)

Mock DUI Crash Scenario
The Office of Safety and Security, University EMT Club, Newport Police and Fire Departments and Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), partner to orchestrate an on campus mock car crash to illustrate the dangers of drunk driving and distracted driving. Several students participate in the educational event, where students pose as realistically injured victims and first responders react to extricate and treat them from the wreckage. The event is always well attended and proves to be a valuable training experience for local public safety personnel as well as a true educational experience for the University community. (annually)

Bicycle Loaner and Registration Program
The University loans bicycles to students which are properly registered to the University. Each bicycle is distributed with a lock and proper reflective equipment to promote safety and security and the prevention of crime on campus (all year).

ALICE Hostile Intruder Training
The Office of Safety and Security has two officers certified in the ALICE* method of hostile intruder response. We have developed procedures to ensure a rapid response to an unanticipated Armed Intruder / Hostile Event scenario. We have also identified protective survival strategies in the event of an armed intruder or hostile event on campus. These strategies are identified in the A.L.I.C.E method of response and survival, and our entire community, including staff, faculty and students are offered this training. (annually)

RAVE Guardian (Mobile Security)
The University has implemented a Mobile Security Application called the RAVE Guardian. The Office of Safety and Security trains the student body, faculty and staff in this mobile security feature, serving as a virtual “Blue Light” phone in everyone’s pocket. The Guardian has a feature where the user can assign permission for someone to watch over them during their travels. A Safety Timer allows Guardians to monitor user’s status and location and be notified in the event the timer expires. It also permits anonymous location based tips and an emergency call button delivers safety profile and user GPS coordinates to safety officers. (annually)

SmartTraxx Transportation Application
This mobile application is available to all students and University personnel free of charge. The app provides students with a real-time map feature that displays the location of the university’s shuttle bus, estimated arrival times at their bus stop, and an alerts and messaging center to relay important information from the university. The Office of Safety and Security trains the student body, faculty and staff in this mobile security feature and encourages its use to provide safe and reliable transportation to our community, both on and off campus. (annually)

Student Safety in the Community Presentation
As a collaborative effort between the Office of Residence Life, Office of Safety and Security and the Newport Police Department, this presentation is designed to establish student awareness on the dangers in our surrounding community. The Newport Police Department’s Community Policing Division discusses local ordinances, certain prohibitions and locations in the city they recommend our students avoid. The police identify these areas and provide specific examples that have affected students for frequenting these areas. (annually)

Safety and Security Campus Crime Report – Clery Act Requirements

Institutions of higher education must publish an annual report disclosing their campus security policies and three years worth of crime statistics.

What are the obligations of Salve Regina University?

To ensure compliance with the Clery Act, Salve Regina University must provide the following to University Community members and visitors alike:

• Policy Disclosure — Salve Regina University must provide the campus community and the public with accurate statements of current policies and practices regarding procedures for students and others to report criminal actions or other emergencies on campus, security of and access to campus facilities, and campus public safety.

• Records Collection and Retention — The Office of Safety and Security is required to keep records of crimes reported on campus to campus security authorities, to obtain certain crime statistics from appropriate law enforcement agencies to include in the annual security report, and keep a daily crime log open for public review.

• Information Dissemination — To provide members of the campus community with information needed to make informed personal safety decisions via a University “timely warning”. A timely warning will be issued upon the commission of any Clery Act crime that represents an ongoing threat to the safety of students and employees. The Office of Safety and Security will also create and maintain a “crime log” of all crimes reported to the University and permit public access to the crime log during normal business hours. The University will further publish an “Annual Security Report” (ASR), make the report available to all current students and employees, as well as prospective students and employees. The University must also inform the campus community where to obtain information regarding registered sex offenders, and submit annual crime statistics to the U.S. Department of Education by October 15th of every year.

Annual Security Report

Crime Statistics are submitted to the Department of Education, made available on the Office of Safety and Security Web page, and are widely distributed, both electronically and via hard copy, to faculty, staff and students, as well as prospective students and employees.

Daily Incident Report (Crime Log)

Each institution with a police or security department must have a public crime log. The Office of Safety and Security completes a daily crime log that contains information on all criminal incidents occurring on campus. The crime log is available for inspection during business hours at the Office of Safety and Security located in Tobin Hall.

Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should immediately report the circumstances to the Office of Safety and Security, by phone at (401)341-2325; or in person at the Office of Safety and Security, located in Tobin Hall (167 Webster Street), situated between Miley Hall and the Rodgers Recreation Center.
Fire Reporting Statistics
The Higher Education Opportunity Act (Public Law 110-315) which became law in August 2008, requires all United States academic institutions of higher education by 2010 to produce an annual fire safety report outlining fire safety practices, standards, and all fire-related on-campus statistics. This also includes maintaining a fire log.

The fire log, which is kept at the Office of Safety and Security, is available to the public during normal business hours. It records any fire that occurred in an on-campus student housing facility and includes information such as the nature, date, time and general location of each fire. The fire log entry, or an addition to an entry, shall be made within two business days of the receipt of information. An institution must report statistics for each on-campus housing facility, for the three most recent calendar years.

Sex Offender Registry
The Federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act, and under section 121 of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 (42 U.S.C. 16921), requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement to members of the campus community advising them about how they may obtain law enforcement agency information regarding sex offenders. In Rhode Island, convicted sex offenders must register with the local police department in their municipality. In Newport, sex offenders must register with the Newport Police Department. Therefore, persons wanting information related to the sex offenders registry and access to related information should contact the Newport Police Department BCI Unit, 120 Broadway Newport, R.I. (401)847-1302. All laws governing sex offenders along with photos and descriptions of level II and level III sex offenders can be viewed at the following website:
https://www.sheriffalerts.com/cap_main.php?office=56404%20%5bsheriffalerts.com%5d

RELEASE OF INFORMATION
The Rhode Island Sex Offender Community Notification Unit releases information pursuant to RI General Laws §11-37.1-1 ET SEQ., also known as the Sexual Offender Registration and Community Notification Act. The individuals on this site are subject to community notification pursuant to RI General Laws §11-37.1-1 which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex offender's release when the Sex Offender Board of Review determines that the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individuals who appear on these notifications have been convicted of a sex offense, which also requires registration with law enforcement pursuant to RI General Laws §11-37.1-1 ET SEQ.

THIS OFFENDER HAS SERVED THE SENTENCE IMPOSED BY THE COURT. THIS NOTIFICATION IS NOT TO INCREASE FEAR IN THE COMMUNITY. IT IS THE BELIEF OF LAW ENFORCEMENT THAT AN INFORMED PUBLIC IS A SAFE PUBLIC.

Per Rhode Island General Law sex offenders who are eligible for community notification review must have a date of offense on or after 7-24-96. In Rhode Island sex offenders are classified based on their risk to re-offend. An offender’s classification will be:

- Level 1 or “low risk offender”
- Level 2 or “moderate risk offender”
- Level 3 or “high risk offender”

Website information about a sex offender is available to the public only if the Sex Offender Board of Review has classified the offender as a Level 3, or as a Level 2 as of January 1, 2006. Per Rhode Island Law information pertaining to Level 1 sex offenders cannot be posted on the website.

No agency, including any Law Enforcement Agency or any state agency, may direct where the offender does or does not reside, nor can these agencies direct where the offender works or goes to school. The risk level of this offender has been determined based largely on the offender’s potential to re-offend.

Sex offenders have always lived in our communities; but it was not until passage of the Sexual Offender Registration and Community Notification Act that law enforcement even knew where they were living. In many cases, law enforcement is now able to publicly share information. Abuse of this information to threaten, intimidate or harass registered offenders will not be tolerated and may be a crime. Further, such abuse could potentially end law enforcement’s ability to conduct community notifications. We believe that if community notification ends because of community harassment, the only person who wins is the sex offender since sex offenders derive their power through secrecy.
Campus Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

Upon confirmation that a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees is occurring on campus or on nearby adjacent city streets, Salve Regina will provide immediate notification to the campus community.

Salve Regina University will, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible University authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Any such notification will be provided by the following methods:

- Emergency Notification System (ENS) System – An automated notification system used to deliver immediate advisories and instructions to students, faculty, and staff via cell phones, landline phones, wireless PDA, SMS and e-mail. All students, faculty, and staff are urged to provide updated personal cell phone and home or off-campus housing telephone numbers so that we can contact you via the SRU ENS system as quickly as possible in the event of an actual emergency. Cell phone numbers are especially important as these devices provide the fastest and most effective way for users to receive information. Personal cell phone and landline numbers will only be used for emergency notification purposes.

- Salve Regina Web page – In the event of an emergency where it is deemed necessary, the University will also utilize the main Web page (www.salve.edu) to inform and update the community members about an emergency occurring on campus. The Web page will contain information about the nature of the emergency and the steps being taken to address the situation.

The ENS is initiated by the Office of Safety and Security or the Office of University Relations. Procedures have been formulated to make these emergency notifications to our community at large on a 24/7 basis. Evacuation centers have been established at two locations on-campus depending on the circumstances and/or location of the threat. The ENS system is tested at least once every academic year with advanced public notification of the test made to the University community.

Each test of the Emergency Notification System, via RAVE, is documented by date, time and whether it was announced or unannounced. This documentation is held within the RAVE ENS system as well as the Office of University Relations.

CONFIRMATION OF AN EMERGENCY OR DANGEROUS SITUATION

Reports of emergency or dangerous situations can originate from various sources including:

- Reports from first responders
- Reports from established warning points
- Reports from other campus offices
- Reports from community members through 911 or Safety and Security dispatch.

Confirmation of these situations will occur through several different processes:

Criminal Nature:
Emergency or dangerous situations that are criminal in nature will be considered confirmed if a law enforcement officer observes the situation as it is occurring. For situations that are criminal in nature that are not apparent or not directly observed by law enforcement, confirmation will be made by the Director of Safety and Security in close communication with the Newport Police Department. The Director of Safety and Security and his designees, along with the Vice President for Student Affairs will review the readily available information and determine if there is enough information to reasonably conclude a significant emergency or dangerous situation is occurring on campus.
Other Emergency or Dangerous Situations: Confirmation of non-criminal situations will be determined after readily available information is reviewed by the Office of Safety and Security and the Office of University Relations.

Established Warning Points: Established warning points are considered entities with subject matter expertise on particular hazards that may affect campus. When a warning is issued by one of these entities it is considered confirmed, however, additional consultation with campus officials will occur as practical without jeopardizing life or safety.
- Rhode Island Department of Health for communicable disease/public health emergencies
- Newport Fire Department for structure fire and hazardous material events
- Rhode Island Emergency Management Agency for additional weather related events and natural disasters
- National Weather Service Warnings for weather events and flood events

Segmented Notification: With the exception of emergencies that are contained to one campus facility, Salve Regina University will not issue segmented emergency notifications. This decision was made based on the analysis of identified risks to the campus and to prevent accidental exclusion of a segment of campus population for which the emergency notification was intended.

Emergency Notification Content: The content of an emergency notification will depend on the situation and the notification method. However, the following information will be included in all initial emergency notifications regardless of the situation or method:
- Specific location of the emergency
- A description of the situation (flash flood warning, dangerous situation, etc.)
- Relevant safety instructions (move to higher ground, shelter in place, etc.)

Upon confirmation that a significant emergency or dangerous situation is occurring on campus, the University will, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate its notification systems, unless issuing the notification will, in the professional judgment of the Director of Security and/or their designee, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

The process the University will follow to confirm that a significant emergency or dangerous situation exists is the following:

1. Salve Regina University Safety and Security officers will be dispatched to confirm that an emergency situation exists.
2. Assessment of the situation by Safety and Security (in collaboration with other University departments), appropriate actions to be taken, and activating the Salve Alert system and the content of the messages to be conveyed.

Notification will be broadcast to the entire community. The Director of Safety and Security and/or their designee and the AVP for University Relations has the responsibility to activate the University’s Emergency Notification System. In the event of a significant emergency or threat to the health and safety of area residents, the University will communicate with the City of Newport and its appropriate offices for the purpose of providing notifications to area residents.

To ensure the effectiveness of its emergency preparedness, the University regularly engages the University community about its emergency and evacuation plans. The activities take the form of classroom and online training, no less than annual disaster exercises, and no less than annual testing of its emergency notification systems. In addition, emergency evacuation procedures (fire drills) are tested at least four times per year in all student residence halls. Tests of the emergency response and evacuation procedures may be announced or unannounced. The University will document for each test, a description of the exercise, the date and time, and if it was announced or unannounced.

Pre-scripted Emergency Notifications: The Office of Safety and Security and the Office of University Relations will develop pre-scripted emergency notifications for the purpose of faster dissemination to the community. These pre-scripted notifications have been developed primarily for the Emergency Notification System. During situations for which a pre-scripted notification has not been developed, the Office of Safety and Security and the Office of University Relations will be the primary departments responsible for creating the messages.
Additional content considerations:
The University will also include relevant instructions, and additional information regarding:
• Campus operating status (open, closed, etc.)
• Frequency of Information updates
• Follow-up Information via the ENS or University website (www.salve.edu)

An “all clear” notification should be sent at the conclusion of a significant emergency or dangerous situation. These notifications should include campus operating status as stated above.

Missing Student Protocols
The 2008 amendments to the Campus Security Act required that all institutions of higher education have missing student procedures along with the ability for these students to list a ‘confidential person’ to be contacted in the event they are missing for more than twenty-four hours.

If a member of the Salve Regina University Community has reason to believe that a student is missing, whether or not the student resides on campus, all possible efforts will be made to locate the student to determine his or her state of health and well-being. If the student is an on-campus resident, the report must be referred immediately to Safety and Security and/or Residence Life, at which time they will enter the student’s room in an attempt to locate the student. If it is an off-campus student, the Office of Safety and Security and the Dean of Students Office will be informed. Those offices will collectively attempt to locate the student and may enlist the aid of the Newport Police Department or other police department having jurisdiction.

Salve Regina will try to determine the student’s whereabouts through contact with friends, associates, and/or employers of the student. We will also try to determine whether the student has been attending classes, labs, recitals, and scheduled organizational or academic meetings and will place an “alert” on the student’s swipe access card to notify the Office of Safety and Security of the student’s whereabouts on campus. If located, verification of the student’s state of health and intention of returning to the campus will be made. When appropriate, a referral will be made to the Office of Counseling and/or Health Services.

If not located, notification of the family is made within 24 hours of receiving the initial report to determine if they know of the whereabouts of the student. The University will also notify the Newport Police Department or the law enforcement agency in the appropriate jurisdiction within 24 hours of the determination that the student is missing, unless that local law enforcement agency was the entity that originally made the determination that the student was missing. If the student is an off-campus resident, appropriate family members or associates are encouraged to make an official missing person report to the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction. Salve Regina University will cooperate with and assist the primary investigative agency.

Students are encouraged to contact the Offices of Residence Life or Dean of Students regarding a missing student, and have the option to report it to the Office of Safety and Security 24/7 at 401-341-2325. The Office of Residence Life informs resident students that they have an option to register a ‘confidential contact person’ to be notified within 24 hours in the case that the student is determined to be missing (see below). This form also authorizes campus officials and law enforcement officers in furtherance of a missing person investigation to have access to this information. The parents or legal guardian of a student less than eighteen years of age (and not emancipated) will be notified.

Residence Life Contact for Missing Person Form
“All students have the right, based on the 2008 amendments to the Campus Security Act, to list a ‘confidential person’ to be contacted in the event they are missing for no less than twenty-four hours. In instances where, an official report by the Office of Safety and Security, Residence Life and/or the Dean of Students Office, determines that a student is missing for 24 hours or more, a person identified by the student must be contacted. If the missing resident student is under 18 years of age (and not emancipated), the University will notify a custodial parent or legal guardian of the student within 24 hours of the determination that the student is missing, in addition to notifying any additional contact person designated by the student. Consequently, each student should identify an individual that the University can contact. The Missing Person Form is located with the “Emergency Contact” form which is available on the MySalve portal and can be updated at any time throughout a student’s time here at Salve.”
Crime Statistics and Their Definitions

Statement addressing Preparation of Disclosure of Annual Crime Statistics
These statistics, which are gathered from the Offices of Safety and Security, Residential Life, Dean of Students, Health Services and Counseling, as well as from the Newport, Middletown, Portsmouth and Warwick Police Departments and the United States Coast Guard, are for the calendar year indicated.

Additionally, the Office of Safety and Security requests crime statistics from the Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) on an annual basis. These CSAs are required to provide the Office of Safety and Security information on any crime reported directly to them during the previous calendar year. For statistical purposes, crime statistics reported to any of these sources are recorded in the calendar year the crime was reported. All statistics are gathered, compiled, and reported to the University community via this report.

The Office of Safety and Security submits these crime statistics to the Department of Education. By October 1 of each year, an e-mail notification is made to all enrolled students and current faculty and staff to provide information about this report. It includes a brief summary of the contents of this report, the website address for accessing this report, and information regarding how interested persons can request a printed copy of the report.

Statement Addressing Criminal Activity Off Campus
If any local law enforcement agency in the area is contacted about criminal activity occurring off-campus involving Salve Regina University students, that agency is encouraged to notify Salve Regina University. Students in these cases may be subject to arrest by any law enforcement agency and may be referred to the Office of the Dean of Students for disciplinary action.

This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. Dating Violence (VAWA Definition)
Dating Violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
- The length of the relationship.
- The type of relationship.
- The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
For the purposes of this definition –
• Dating Violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
• Dating Violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

Domestic Violence

Domestic Violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Hate Crimes

A crime that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator's bias against the victim and the victim's actual or perceived race, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national origin, and disability.

Categories of Bias:

Race: A preformed negative attitude toward a group of persons who possess common physical characteristics, e.g., color of skin, eyes, and/or hair; facial features, etc., genetically transmitted by descent and heredity which distinguish them as a distinct division of humankind, e.g., Asians, blacks or African Americans, whites.

In the event of an anonymous hate crime or bias-related incident, the Office of Safety and Security and the Dean of Students office, with the advice and support of the Vice President for Student Affairs and the Bias Response Team will decide:
1. If the event is serious enough to warrant notice to the University community.
2. If the university counselors should be engaged - on call or with presentations in the residence halls.
3. What programming, meetings or activities can be set in place.
Sexual Harassment and Anti-Discrimination Policy and Grievance Procedures

The purpose of this policy is to define prohibited conduct and explain Salve Regina's grievance procedures and processes, including, but not limited to, how to report or file a complaint and how the University will respond.

Prohibition Against Discrimination and Sexual Harassment
It is the policy of Salve Regina to prohibit all forms of discrimination and harassment on the basis of an individual's actual or perceived membership in a protected class.

Notice of Non-Discrimination
Salve Regina strives to provide equal opportunity in employment and education to all employees, students and applicants. No employee, student or applicant shall be discriminated against or harassed on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, religion, disability, age, marital or parental status, military or veteran status, genetic information or any other basis protected by applicable federal or state law, in the administration of Salve Regina's employment policies, education policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic and other University administered programs. In accordance with Title IX, it does not discriminate on the basis of sex in any of its educational programs or activities. Salve Regina is also committed to making its programs and campus accessible to its visitors and compliant with all applicable non-discrimination laws.

Statement on Sexual Harassment
Salve Regina prohibits all forms of discrimination on the basis of sex in the education program and activity that it operates and is required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 ("Title IX") and its implementing regulations1 not to discriminate in such a manner. This prohibition against discrimination on the basis of sex extends to admission and employment. Inquiries about the application of Title IX to Salve Regina may be referred to the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator or to the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, or both.

This prohibition against discrimination on the basis of sex applies to incidents of sexual harassment as defined by 34 C.F.R. § 106.30, as well as dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking as defined by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013. Sexual harassment, including sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination that is illegal under both federal and Rhode Island state law, including Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and Section 28-51-2 of the General Laws of Rhode Island.

NOTE: See 20 U.S.C. § 1681(a) (2018) (Title IX), which states, “No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.”

Consent is a clear, informed, and voluntary agreement to engage in specific sexual activity. Consent to one type of sexual activity does not equal consent to other types of sexual activity. Consent can be withdrawn at any point during sexual activity and the sexual activity must stop immediately. A verbal “no” establishes lack of consent. Silence, without clear actions demonstrating permission, cannot be assumed to indicate consent—the absence of “no” does not equal “yes.” Consent cannot be obtained by coercion, force, or threat. Consent cannot be given by someone if they are mentally or physically incapacitated.

Incapacitation is a state where an individual is temporarily or permanently impaired to the extent where that person can no longer make a rational and informed decision to consent to sexual activity. Incapacitation may be caused by mental or physical disability, or when a person has consumed alcohol or other drugs, including prescribed medication. Individuals who are asleep or unconscious are incapacitated. A person who does not comprehend the “who, what, when, where, why or how” of a sexual interaction may be incapacitated.

Evidence of incapacitation may include, but is not limited to: stumbling or shaky equilibrium, vomiting, slurred speech, bloodshot eyes, smell of alcohol, outrageous or unusual behavior, or unconsciousness (for short or long periods of time).

Force is the use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force can include intimidation or implied threats to overcome an individual’s resistance or produce consent. There is no requirement that a party resist the sexual advance or request, but resistance is a clear demonstration of non-consent.
Coercion is unreasonable or sustained pressure for sexual activity. Coercive behavior differs from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure someone uses to get consent from another. When someone makes it clear that they do not want sex, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.

Intimidation is defined as overt or implied threats or acts that would cause reasonable fear of harm in another.

Preponderance of the Evidence standard is met if the greater weight of the evidence demonstrates that it is ‘more likely than not’ that a violation has occurred.

Complainant is any individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that is prohibited under this policy.

Respondent is any individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of conduct that is prohibited under this policy.

Applicability and Scope of Policy
This policy applies to all University community members, including faculty, adjunct faculty, staff, students, and participants in University programs or activities, both on campus and in other locations, including Study Abroad locations and at University sponsored events within and outside the United States.* In certain situations this policy may also apply to other individuals, such as vendors, independent contractors, visitors, volunteers, and/or other third parties.

*Exception for Title IX Complaints: To be adjudicated under this policy and grievance procedures as a Title IX Complaint, the alleged behavior must constitute sexual harassment as defined by Title IX and must have occurred within the University’s education programs or activities in the United States. For purposes of this policy, an education program or activity includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the University exercised substantial control over both the Respondent and the context in which the Title IX sexual harassment occurred, and also includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the University. If the alleged behavior would not constitute Title IX sexual harassment, even if proven, or if it falls outside the jurisdiction and scope of Title IX, it will still be adjudicated under this policy and grievance procedures, if applicable; however, as required by law, it will be dismissed for the purposes of sexual harassment under Title IX. If a complaint is dismissed under Title IX, the parties will be notified accordingly and the parties will have the right to appeal the dismissal.

Prohibited Conduct

Discrimination and Harassment
Discrimination occurs when an individual is treated differently because of their race, color, national or ethnic origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, religion, disability, marital or parental status, military or veteran status, genetic information, or any other basis protected by applicable federal or state law (referred to as “protected classes”) in admissions or employment or in the educational programs or activities of the University. In determining whether discrimination occurred, the University reviews whether there was an adverse impact on the Complainant’s educational or employment environment when similarly situated individuals outside of the same protected class(es) received more favorable treatment. In cases where there was an adverse impact on the Complainant’s educational or employment environment, the University will determine whether there was a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for the alleged conduct.

Harassment is conduct, whether physical, verbal, or through the use of electronics means, that is directed at the Complainant because of the Complainant’s membership in a protected class (or in a perceived class), which has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with the Complainant’s education or employment, or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive academic or employment environment. To constitute harassment, the conduct must create a hostile environment from both a subjective and objective perspective and must be so severe, persistent, or pervasive that it unreasonably interferes with, limits, or denies the Complainant the ability to participate in or to receive benefits from the University’s education or employment programs or activities.

Title IX Sexual Harassment means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following three categories: (1) Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment; (2) Hostile Environment Sexual Harassment; and/or (3) Sex-Based Crimes.

Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment occurs when an employee of Salve Regina conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the University on an indi-individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct. NOTE: 34 C.F.R. § 106.30 requires that allegations which constitute sexual harassment under Title IX and fall within the jurisdiction and scope of Title IX must be adjudicated using the Title IX definitions of sexual harassment defined here. Allegations of sexual harassment that do not satisfy the Title IX definition of sexual harassment or fall outside the jurisdiction and scope of Title IX will be adjudicated under this policy using the definition set forth under “Non-Title IX Sexual Harassment.”

Hostile Environment Sexual Harassment occurs when unwelcome conduct is determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the University’s education program or activity.

Sexual Assault includes the sex offenses of Rape, Sodomy, Sexual Assault with an Object, Fondling, Incest, and Statutory Rape.

Rape is the carnal knowledge of a person, without the consent of that person, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

Sodomy is oral or anal sexual intercourse with another person, without the consent of that person, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

Sexual Assault With An Object is the use an object or instrument to unlawfully penetrate, however slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, without the consent of that person, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

Fondling is the touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification without the consent of that person, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

Incest is nonforcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

Statutory Rape is nonforcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Dating Violence means violence committed by a person - who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
- The length of the relationship.
- The type of relationship.
- The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Domestic Violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Stalking means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to -
- fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or
- suffer substantial emotional distress.

Non-Title IX Sexual Harassment

The following definitions apply to allegations of sexual harassment that fall outside the definition and/or scope of Title IX sexual harassment.

Non-Title IX Sexual Harassment is defined as unwelcomed conduct of a sexual nature. For purposes of this policy, sexual harassment occurs when the behavior creates a hostile environment as defined below:

Hostile Environment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that is severe or pervasive, and that creates a hostile or abusive learning, working, or living environment, thereby unreasonably interfering with a person's ability to learn or work, or to access or participate in a University program or activity.

Examples of sexual harassment may include but are not limited to:
- unwelcomed sexual advances;
- requests for sexual favors;
- situations in which the University environment is sexually hostile or oppressive to members of the University because of the behavior of community members;
- written contact, such as sexually suggestive, harassing, or obscene letters, texts, faxes, emails, notes, invitations, etc.;
- verbal contact of a sexual nature, such as sexually suggestive or obscene comments, phone calls, threats, slurs, epithets, jokes about gender-specific traits, sexual propositions;
- physical contact, such as intentional touching, pinching, brushing against another's body, impeding or blocking movement, assault; coercing intercourse;
- visual contact, such as leering or staring at another's body, gesturing, displaying sexually suggestive objects or pictures, cartoons, posters or magazines.

Sexual Assault is defined as any sexual act directed against another person, without consent, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent.

The following behavior will constitute sexual assault under this policy:

Nonconsensual Sexual Penetration (or attempts to commit the same) often referred to as rape:
- Any sexual intercourse (anal, oral, or vaginal), however slight,
- with or without an object,
- by a person upon another person,
- that is without consent, by physical force, and/or abusive sexual contact.

Sexual penetration is defined as any contact, however slight, of the vagina or anus of a person by any body part (penis, tongue, finger) of another person or an object; and/or any contact, however slight, of the mouth of a person by a sex organ of another person. Evidence of emission of semen is not required to prove sexual penetration.

Nonconsensual Sexual Contact (or attempts to commit the same) often referred to as fondling:
- Any intentional sexual touching, including but not limited to breast, buttocks, inner thigh, groin, genitalia or surrounding area in a sexual way,
- however slight,
- with or without an object;
- by a person upon another person,
- that is without consent, by physical force and/or abusive sexual contact.

Sexual contact includes intentional contact with the breast, buttocks, groin, or genitals, or touching another with any of these body parts, or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts; any intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner, though not involving contact with/of/ by breast, buttocks, groin, genitals, mouth or other orifice.

Sexual Exploitation is defined as taking nonconsensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for one’s own advantage or benefit, or to benefit a person other than the one being exploited.

Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:
- Prostituting another student;
- Non-consensual video or audio recording of sexual activity, including dissemination of an audio or video recording;
- Exceeding the boundaries of explicit consent, such as allowing a person to hide in a closet to be witness to one’s consensual sexual activity, or to witness through electronic means;
- Engaging in voyeurism;
- Knowingly transmitting or exposing another student to sexually transmitted infections or viruses without their knowledge;
- Invasion of sexual privacy;
- Exposing one’s genitals in non-consensual circumstances, inducing another to expose their genitals; and/or
- Sexually-based stalking and/or bullying.

Retaliation is intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by federal or state law, or because an individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or live hearing under this policy. Both parties are prohibited from engaging in intimidating actions directly or through support persons that reasonably could deter either a party or a witness from participating in an informal resolution process or formal complaint proceeding.

Title IX Retaliation: In addition to the prohibited Retaliation conduct described above, the following conduct is specifically prohibited in Title IX sexual harassment cases and may constitute an additional violation under Title IX: Intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination, including charges against an individual for code of conduct violations that do not involve sex discrimination or sexual harassment, but arise out of the same facts or circumstances as a report or complaint of sex discrimination, or a report or formal complaint of sexual harassment, for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX.

Telephone/E-mail/Text/Internet/Social Networking Harassment

Anyone using the University telecommunications system or internet to harass or invade one’s privacy is subject to a revocation of telecommunications system privileges and/or other disciplinary action such as probation, suspension or dismissal. Of specific concern is harassment, which inflicts psychological and/or emotional harm upon any member of the University community through any means, including but not limited to e-mail, text, social media, and other technological forms of communication. This may include making unauthorized video/voice recording or photographic images of a person in a location or situation in which that person has a reasonable expectation of privacy including, but not limited to, shower/locker rooms, residence hall rooms, and men’s or women’s restrooms. The storing, sharing and/or other distribution of such unauthorized images by any means is also prohibited.

A student who receives a harassing telephone call or e-mail should report it to the Office of Safety and Security or, if appropriate, to the Title IX Coordinator. A report may also be filed with the local law enforcement agency. The Office of Safety and Security will document a call report and contact the Network Services Department, Dean of Students Office, and the Office of Residence Life.

The Office of Safety and Security will investigate all calls, e-mails or threats. Students found to be responsible for harassing or crank phone calls will be referred to the Dean of Students’ Office or the Office of Residence Life. If additional harassment is reported, representatives from the Office of Safety and Security and the Network Services Department will meet with the complainant, implement the chosen option, and inform the offices of Safety and Security and Residence Life about the course of action.

Reporting Incidents
The Clery Act and the Violence Against Women Act prohibit sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking, and require a prompt and equitable resolution of complaints. Incidents should be referred to the Title IX coordinator. If an act of sexual violence is in progress or imminent on campus, dial 911.

Confidentiality
Salve Regina will make all reasonable efforts to keep confidential the identity of any individual who has made a report or filed a formal complaint of discrimination or harassment (including sexual harassment) under this policy, any individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of discrimination or harassment (including sexual harassment), any Respondent, or any witness. Salve Regina will maintain as confidential any supportive measures provided to the Complainant or Respondent, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the University to provide the supportive measures.

Salve Regina may reveal confidential information as permitted or required by law, to carry out the purposes of this policy, including conducting any investigation, live hearing, or proceeding arising thereunder.

Although Salve Regina will make all reasonable efforts to maintain privacy and confidentiality, the University will not restrict the ability of either party to discuss the allegations under investigation or to gather and present relevant evidence. However, the prohibition of retaliation continues to apply.

Certain types of Sexual Harassment are considered crimes for which the University must disclose crime statistics in its Annual Security Report that is provided to the campus community and available to the public. In these instances, the University will continue to complete publicly available recordkeeping in accordance with relevant laws, including the Clery Act reporting and disclosures, without the inclusion of personally identifying information about the Complainant.

Amnesty for Students
The health and safety of every student at Salve Regina is of utmost importance. Salve Regina recognizes that students who have been drinking and/or using drugs (whether such use is voluntary or involuntary) at the time that an incident of violence occurs, including, but not limited to, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault, may be hesitant to report such incidents due to fear of potential consequences for their own conduct. Salve Regina strongly encourages students to report incidents of violence to University officials. A bystander acting in good faith, or a reporting individual acting in good faith (including a Complainant), who discloses any incident of violence to Salve Regina’s officials or law enforcement will not be subject to Salve Regina’s code of conduct action for violations of alcohol- and/or drug-use policies occurring at or near the time of the commission of the incident of violence.

NOTE: If the University becomes aware of a serious and continuing threat to the campus community, the University may issue a timely warning in accordance with federal regulation to protect the health or safety of the community and may publish a reported incident in the daily crime log or annual security report. In addition, the University may also share non-identifying information, including data about outcomes and sanctions. The University will not disclose the name or other personally identifiable information of the Complainant unless it has received the express consent of the Complainant or unless the release of such information is consistent with legal requirements or mandated by law.

Options for Reporting Prohibited Conduct
Reporting Procedure
All persons, including employees, are strongly encouraged to report incidents of discrimination and harassment to the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator. The Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator is available to offer supportive measures and resources and to answer questions about the University’s policy and grievance procedures.

Any person (whether or not the person reporting is the person alleged to be the Complainant) may report discrimination or harassment (including sexual harassment), in person, by mail, by telephone, or by electronic mail, using the contact information listed for the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator in Appendix A, or by any other means that results in the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator receiving the person’s verbal or written report. Such report may be made at any time (including during non-business hours) by using the telephone number or electronic http://www.salve.edu/sexual-misconduct-anonymous-reporting-form

mail address, or by mail to the office address, listed for the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator. For purposes of this policy, Salve Regina will be deemed to have actual notice of allegations only when notice of said allegations are made to the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator or to a University official who has authority to institute corrective measures on behalf of the University.

A reporting party may request that Salve Regina not investigate and/or adjudicate the report under the formal complaint procedures described herein. Salve Regina will make all reasonable efforts to honor the Complainant’s request. However, in certain circumstances, the University may have to pursue a formal complaint. These circumstances include, but are not limited to, instances when the University has received multiple reports of misconduct by the same individual or when the conduct reported poses a compelling risk to the health and safety of members of the University community, which includes the complainant.

Upon receiving a report of discrimination or harassment (including sexual harassment), if the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator is made aware of the identity of a Complainant, the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator will make all reasonable efforts to promptly contact the Complainant to discuss the availability of supportive measures, consider the Complainant’s wishes with respect to supportive measures, inform the Complainant of the availability of supportive measures with or without the filing of a formal complaint, and explain to the Complainant the process for filing a formal complaint.

Upon receiving a report of discrimination or harassment (including sexual harassment), if the Respondent is unknown or is not a faculty, staff, or student member of the University, the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator will make all reasonable efforts to provide the Complainant with supportive measures, as well as information and options regarding potential criminal processes. The Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator may also take appropriate actions to protect the Complainant, such as providing assistance in obtaining no-trespass and restraining orders. If requested, the University will assist in filing/applying for orders of protection, restraining orders, or similar lawful orders issued by a criminal, civil, or tribal court.

Option of Confidential Reporting
Individuals may speak confidentially with Health and Counseling Services employees, University chaplains, and other off-campus resources in accordance with law.

Option of Reporting to Law Enforcement
Individuals who have experienced criminal violations are encouraged to report the incident to local law enforcement and have the option to do so. Formal reporting options include contacting the police department in the jurisdiction in which the incident occurred. If a Complainant chooses to report to law enforcement or pursue a criminal process, the Complainant may simultaneously pursue a complaint under this policy. Individuals are advised that if there is concurrent law enforcement activity, Salve Regina may temporarily delay its investigative or adjudicative process. The University can provide Complainants with information and support in the process of reporting criminal conduct to law enforcement.

Regarding the involvement of law enforcement, the Complainant has several options, including: (1) to notify law enforcement authorities; (2) to be assisted by campus authorities in notifying law enforcement authorities if the Complainant chooses; or (3) to decline to notify such authorities. The University will comply with the Complainant’s request for assistance in notifying law enforcement to the extent it is consistent with law. The Complainant’s choice to report to law enforcement will not impact the provision of supportive measures.

Reporting Child Abuse and/or Neglect and Elder Abuse, Neglect, Exploitation and/or Self-Neglect
All persons, including employees, are mandated by Rhode Island law to report known or suspected cases of child abuse and/or neglect and elder abuse, neglect, exploitation and/or self-neglect.

Child Abuse and/or Neglect: An abused or neglected child is defined by Rhode Island law as meaning a child whose physical or mental health or well-being is harmed when their parent or another person responsible for them: Inflicts physical or mental injury, or creates a substantial risk to be created for the result of a physical and/or mental injury; Commits, or allows to be committed, an act of sexual abuse; Fails to supply adequate food, clothing, shelter, or medical care even when financially able to or has access to other reasonable means; Fails to provide a minimum degree of care, supervision, or guardianship; Abandons or deserts the child; or Sexually exploits the child; commits or allows to be committed any sexual offense against the child. The Rhode Island law defining child abuse and neglect in the state of Rhode Island can be found by clicking on the following link: § 40-11-2: Abused and Neglected Children. Rhode Island law requires that all persons report known or suspected cases of child abuse and/or neglect, meaning the physical or mental injury, sexual abuse or exploitation, negligent treatment or maltreatment of a child under the age of eighteen (18). If any person, including employees (faculty and staff members) suspect or witnesses child sexual and/or neglect abuse on campus, the employee must report it to the Rhode Island Department of Children, Youth, and Families within 24 hours of becoming aware of such abuse/neglect. Call the DCYF hotline at 1-800-RI-CHILD (1-800-742-4453).

In emergency situations, call 911 first. Michael Caruolo, Director of the Office of Safety and Security, has been designated as the person responsible for reviewing reports of sexual abuse of minors for trends, patterns, or repeat offenders on campus.

Elder Abuse, Neglect, Exploitation and/or Self-Neglect: Any person who has reasonable cause to believe that any person sixty (60) years of age or older has been abused, neglected, or exploited, or is self-neglecting, shall make an immediate report to the director of the Office of Healthy Aging, or their designee at http://oha.ri.gov/ers-reporting/ or by calling 401-462-0555. The Office of Healthy Aging may then notify law enforcement if appropriate. This section applies to any person sixty (60) years of age or older regardless of where they live in the community. In emergency situations, call 911 first.

Student and Employee Reporting Procedures related to Health Service Professionals and Athletic Trainers
Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) prohibits sex discrimination in applicable health programs and activities, including Salve Regina’s Health Service Professionals and Athletic Trainers. We strongly encourage any student, employee Health Service patient, or other individual who feels they have been subjected to sexual discrimination (including but not limited to sexual harassment, sexual abuse and/or sexual assault) to immediately contact Emily Diomandes, Assistant Dean of Students, Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator or Nancy Escher, Director of HR, and/or the Newport Police. Complaints related to Salve Regina’s Health Services Professionals or Athletic Trainers will be processed and resolved according to the procedures listed in this policy. Salve Regina’s Health Service Professionals and Athletic Trainers will follow appropriate procedures to maximize physical security. Patients may request a chaperone or support person at any time for any examination with Health Service Professionals or Athletic trainers.

Interim Actions
Emergency Removal and Administrative Leave
Upon receiving a report that a Respondent engaged in prohibited conduct described in this policy, Salve Regina reserves the right to remove the Respondent on an emergency basis, provided that it conducts an individualized safety and risk analysis, determines that an immediate threat to the physical health and safety of any individual arising from the allegations justifies removal, and provides the Respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal.

Supportive Measures
Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the Complainant or the Respondent before or after the filing of a formal complaint or where no formal complaint has been filed. Such measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University’s education program or activity without unreasonably burdening the other party, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties or the University’s educational environment, or deter discrimination or harassment (including sexual harassment).

The Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator is responsible for coordinating the effective implementation of supportive measures.

Salve Regina will maintain as confidential any supportive measures provided to the Complainant or Respondent, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the University to provide the supportive measures.

Both the Complainant and Respondent involved in either an informal or a formal resolution process have a right to receive supportive measures from the University.
Supportive measures include, but are not limited to:

Academic Accommodations, such as:
- Exam, paper, or assignment rescheduling;
- Taking an incomplete in a class;

Training Required for Title IX Cases
The Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator(s), Investigator(s), Decision-Maker(s), and Facilitator(s) of Informal Resolution Processes receive training on:

- Prohibited behaviors as defined in this policy, including Title IX Sexual Harassment;
- The scope of the University’s education program or activity as it relates to Title IX complaints;
- How to conduct the informal resolution process and formal complaint grievance processes under this policy, including investigations, live hearings, appeals, and informal resolution processes as applicable; and
- How to serve impartially, including by avoiding prejudgment of the facts at issue, conflicts of interest, and bias.

The Decision-Maker(s) will receive additional training on:
- Any technology to be used at a live hearing; and
- Issues of relevance of questions and evidence, including when questions and evidence about the Complainant’s sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior are not relevant.

The Investigator(s) will receive additional training on:
- Issues of relevance to create an investigative report that fairly summarizes relevant evidence.
- Any materials used to train will not rely on sex or other stereotypes and will promote impartial investigations and adjudications of formal complaints.
- All Title IX training materials will be posted on the Salve Regina website as a part of its recordkeeping in accordance with law.

In addition to the aforementioned trainings, Salve Regina also offers primary prevention and awareness programs, as well as educational programs and campaigns for students and employees to promote the awareness of discrimination and harassment, including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. More information can be found in the University’s Annual Security Report.

As required by the Clery Act, the Grievance Process will also be implemented by officials who, at a minimum, receive annual training on relevant issues related to sexual assault, dating and domestic violence and stalking and on how to conduct the Grievance Process.

Resolution Processes

Conflicts of interest, Bias, and Impartiality
The Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator(s), Investigator(s), Decision-Maker(s), and Facilitator(s) of Informal Resolution Processes will make all reasonable efforts to ensure the formal complaint grievance process is facilitated in an impartial manner.

The parties are expected to promptly report concern(s) regarding conflict of interest or bias regarding the above listed personnel to the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator as soon as reasonably possible once they become aware of the conflict of interest or bias. Upon receiving a report of conflict of interest or bias, the University will evaluate the report, and if it is determined that a conflict of interest or bias exists, the University will appoint another individual to serve in the role.

Option of Informal Resolution Process
Informal resolution does not involve a full investigation and adjudication like the formal complaint grievance process. Rather, the informal resolution process uses mediation or other forms of dispute resolution with the goal that the parties will arrive at a mutually agreed-upon outcome. *The informal resolution process cannot be used for Title IX cases involving allegations that an employee sexually harassed a student.

In order to engage in an informal resolution process, the Complainant and Respondent must voluntarily consent in writing to participate in the process, and the process must be deemed appropriate for informal resolution by the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator.

Exception for Title IX Complaints: In order to engage in an informal resolution process to resolve Title IX allegations, the Complainant must first file a formal complaint with the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator and then, as described above, all parties must voluntarily consent in writing to participate in the process and the process must be deemed appropriate for informal resolution by the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator.
Written Notice to the Parties
Prior to initiating an informal resolution process, the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator will provide written notice to the parties that includes:

- The allegations alleged by the Complainant;
- The requirements of the informal resolution process including the circumstances under which the parties are precluded from resuming a formal complaint arising from the same allegations, provided, however, that at any time prior to agreeing to a resolution, any party has the right to withdraw from the informal resolution process and move forward with a formal complaint grievance process; and
- Any consequences resulting from participating in the informal resolution process, including the records that will be maintained or could be shared.

To complete the informal resolution process, both parties must voluntarily agree to the outcome with the understanding that the outcome is final and will not be subject to further procedures under this policy, unless there is material evidence to show that a party engaged in misrepresentation or fraudulent conduct which impacted the resolution.

As mentioned above, both parties reserve the right to terminate the informal resolution process and may move forward with the formal complaint grievance process any time prior to resolution. Such termination must be provided to the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator in writing.

Formal Complaint Grievance Process

Formal Complaint: A formal complaint is a document signed by a Complainant or signed by the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator, alleging discrimination or harassment (including sexual harassment) against a Respondent and requesting that the University investigate. At the time of filing a formal complaint, a Complainant must be participating in or attempting to participate in the education program or activity of the University. For purposes of this policy, employment by the University constitutes participation in the education program or activity.

A Formal Complaint may be filed with the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator in person, by mail, or by electronic mail. For purposes of this definition, “document signed by a Complainant” means a document or electronic submission that contains the Complainant’s physical or digital signature, or otherwise indicates that the Complainant is the person filing the formal complaint. Where the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator signs a formal complaint, the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator is not a Complainant or otherwise a party.

Overview of Formal Complaint Grievance Process

Once a formal complaint (as defined above) is filed, the grievance process will commence. The grievance process will include written notice of allegations, investigation with interviews of all parties and relevant witnesses, a live hearing that includes all parties and relevant witnesses led by a Decision-Maker, a written determination of responsibility, and the option for appeal.

In Title IX complaints, the Complainant who files a formal complaint will have the option to request that the University initiate an informal resolution process, rather than a formal investigation. If all parties voluntarily consent, the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator deems the process as appropriate for informal resolution, and the other requirements described in the “Option of Informal Resolution Process” section herein are met, then the parties may proceed with the informal resolution process rather than a formal investigation. However, at any time prior to agreeing to a resolution, any party has the right to withdraw from the informal resolution process and move forward with a formal investigation.

Unless it is a Title IX complaint and the parties have met the requirements and chosen to proceed with an informal resolution process as described herein.

Salve Regina will make all reasonable efforts to provide a prompt, equitable, fair and impartial resolution of student and employee complaints, including providing a grievance process that treats Complainants and Respondents equitably by providing remedies to a Complainant where a determination of responsibility has been made against the Respondent, and by following its grievance process before imposition of any disciplinary sanctions or other actions that are not supportive measures. Remedies will be designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University’s education program or activity. Such remedies may include the same individualized services offered as supportive measures; however, remedies need not be non-disciplinary or non-punitive and need not avoid burdening the Respondent.
Written Notice of Allegations

Upon receiving a formal complaint, the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator will provide written notice to all known parties that includes:

- The University’s grievance process, including any informal resolution process;
- The allegations alleged by the Complainant, including sufficient details known at the time and with sufficient time to prepare a response before any initial interview. “Sufficient details” include the identities of the parties involved, if known; the conduct allegedly constituting the discrimination or harassment (including sexual harassment), if known; and the date and location of the alleged incident(s), if known.
- A statement that the Respondent is presumed not responsible for the alleged conduct and that a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the grievance process.
- Information regarding the parties’ right to have an advisor of their choice, who may be, but is not required to be an attorney.
- A statement that the parties may inspect and review evidence as described in the investigation section of this policy; and
- A statement that Salve Regina prohibits knowingly making false statements or knowingly submitting false information in bad faith. Individuals who engage in this misconduct may be subject to disciplinary actions. Disciplinary action pursued against a party for knowingly making false statements or submitting false information in bad faith does not constitute retaliation prohibited under this policy, provided, however, that a determination regarding responsibility, alone, is not sufficient to conclude that any party made a materially false statement or provided materially false information in bad faith.

If in the course of an investigation, Salve Regina decides to investigate allegations about the Complainant or Respondent that are not included in the written notice of allegations described above, the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator will provide written notice of the additional allegations to the parties whose identities are known.

Advisors

The Complainant and the Respondent are entitled to the same opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by the advisor of their choice, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney; and the University may not limit the choice or presence of an advisor for either the Complainant or Respondent in any meeting or grievance proceeding, notwithstanding, the advisor must comply with the restrictions established by the University regarding the extent to which the advisor may participate in the proceedings. The restrictions are set forth below:

Meetings and Investigation Interviews: Advisors may not speak for or on behalf of any Complainant or Respondent during any meetings and/or investigation interviews. While an advisor cannot speak for or on behalf of the Complainant or Respondent during any meetings and/or investigation interviews, time will be granted for the advisor and the party to confer, if deemed appropriate, by the Investigator or University personnel facilitating any meeting. The Investigator and University personnel reserve the right to exclude an advisor from any meeting or investigation interview for failure to abide by these restrictions.

Title IX Live Hearings: Each party must have an advisor present at the Title IX live hearing. If a Complainant or Respondent does not have an advisor present at the Title IX live hearing, the University will provide one. The University reserves sole discretion to select the advisor provided. The advisor selected will be provided without cost to the Complainant or Respondent. The role of the advisor during the Title IX live hearing is solely to conduct questioning on the Complainant’s or Respondent’s behalf. At the Title IX live hearing, the Decision-Maker will permit each party’s advisor to ask the other party and any witnesses relevant questions and follow-up questions, including those challenging credibility. It is the expectation of the University that the advisor will at all times act in a respectful and non-aggressive manner. The Decision-Maker reserves the right to exclude an advisor from the Title IX live hearing for failure to abide by these restrictions. Should an advisor be excluded from the Title IX live hearing, the party will be able to choose a new advisor, or one will be provided by the University.

Non-Title IX Live Hearings: The Complainant and the Respondent are entitled to the same opportunity to have one advisor of their choice present during the non-Title IX live hearing. Advisors may not speak for or on behalf of the Complainant or Respondent or ask questions during the non-Title IX live hearing. Questions will only be permitted to be asked by the Complainant or Respondent directly to the Decision-Maker. While an advisor cannot speak on behalf of the Complainant or Respondent, time will be granted for the advisor and the Complainant or Respondent to confer, if deemed appropriate, by the Decision-Maker. A student is not required to have an advisor present in non-Title IX live hearings. The Decision-Maker reserves the right to exclude an advisor from the non-Title IX live hearing for failure to abide by these restrictions.

Advisors are required to follow all procedures described in this policy. In a situation where an advisor engages in a material violation of this policy or does not abide by reasonable instruction from the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator(s), Investigator(s), Decision-Maker(s), or other University personnel, Salve Regina reserves the right to either limit or preclude the advisor from participation in the formal complaint grievance process. In the circumstance that an advisor is precluded from future participation, the party may select a new advisor of their choice or the University will provide an advisor for them.

Consolidation of a Formal Complaint
Salve Regina may consolidate formal complaints under this policy when allegations arise out of the same facts or circumstances. In addition, a formal complaint of Title IX retaliation may be consolidated with a formal complaint of sexual harassment under Title IX. Where the formal resolution process involves more than one Complainant or more than one Respondent, references made to the singular “party,” “Complainant,” or “Respondent” include the plural, as applicable.

Termination of a Formal Complaint or Acknowledgment of Responsibility
Salve Regina may terminate a formal complaint if:
- At any time during the investigation or live hearing a Complainant notifies the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator in writing that the Complainant would like to withdraw the formal complaint or any allegations therein;
- The Respondent is no longer enrolled in or employed by the University; or
- There are specific circumstances that prevent the University from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination as to the formal complaint or allegations therein.

At any point during the grievance process, a Respondent may choose to voluntarily admit responsibility for the alleged violation(s) and execute a written waiver, at which point the Respondent will be assigned a sanction(s) and the grievance process will be terminated.

Privileged Information
The University will not require, allow, rely upon, or otherwise permit questions or use of evidence that constitute, or seek disclosure of, information protected under a legally recognized privilege. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a person holding such a privilege has waived the privilege, then the information may be used during an investigation or live hearing.

In gathering evidence, the University will not access, consider, disclose, or otherwise use a party’s records that are made or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional acting in the professional’s or paraprofessional’s capacity, or assisting in that capacity, and which are made and maintained in connection with the provision of treatment to the party, unless the University obtains that party’s voluntary, written consent to do so.

Evidence Pertaining to Sexual History
Questions about or evidence of a Complainant’s sexual predisposition is never considered relevant for the purposes of an investigative report or questioning in a live hearing.

Questions about or evidence of a Complainant’s sexual history is only considered relevant for the purposes of an investigative report or questioning in a live hearing if:
- Such questions and evidence about the Complainant’s prior sexual history are offered to prove that someone other than the Respondent committed the conduct alleged by the complainant; or
- Such questions and evidence concern specific incidents of the Complainant’s prior sexual history with respect to the Respondent and are offered to prove consent.

Questions or evidence about a Complainant’s sexual history that do not meet the two exceptions described above are excluded from investigative reports and live hearings, and are to be deemed irrelevant.
Investigation

Overview of the Investigative Process
Once a formal complaint is filed, the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator will appoint an Investigator to conduct a formal investigation into the allegations.

Parties whose participation is invited or expected for an investigative interview will be contacted by the Investigator and provided written notice of the date, time, location, participants, and purpose of the meeting. Parties will be given reasonably sufficient time to prepare to participate.

The Investigator will make all reasonable efforts to complete the investigative report within 60 business days. This timeline may vary depending on the size of the formal complaint, the amount of evidence to be considered, the number of persons to be interviewed, and additional factors. If the investigative report is going to take longer than 60 business days to complete, the parties and their advisors will be given notice.

The parties and their advisors are not authorized to disseminate any portion of the investigative report sent to them through electronic or hardcopy means.

Unauthorized video or audio recordings of investigative interviews are not permitted by the parties or their advisors.

Equal Opportunity Given to the Parties
The appointed Investigator will meet standards set out in the “Roles of Professionals Involved in the Informal and Formal Resolution Processes for Sexual Harassment” section above.

All parties have an equal opportunity to present witnesses, including fact and expert witnesses, and other inculpatory and exculpatory evidence.

Both the Complainant and Respondent are permitted to provide names of potential witnesses to the Investigator. The Investigator will determine which of those potential witnesses, or other persons, may have relevant information about the alleged conduct; and the Investigator may request statements, either orally or in writing.

Both the Complainant and the Respondent are permitted to provide other relevant evidence to the Investigator. For instance, evidence may include any facts or information presented in support of or opposition to an allegation, text messages, email exchanges, timelines, receipts, photographs, etc. The Investigator may also consider additional documents, items, or other relevant information.

All parties will be given an equal opportunity to inspect and review any evidence obtained as a part of the investigation that is directly related to the allegations raised in the formal complaint. This includes evidence which the University does not intend to rely on in reaching a determination regarding responsibility; and inculpatory or exculpatory evidence, whether obtained from a party or other source, so that each party can meaningfully respond to the evidence prior to the conclusion of the investigation.

Review of Evidence
All parties must submit to the Investigator any evidence that they would like the Investigator to consider prior to the completion of the investigative report. Prior to the completion of the investigative report, the University will send to each party and the party’s advisor, if any, the evidence subject to inspection and review in an electronic or hardcopy format.

(Note: All evidence that was subject to the parties’ inspection and review will be made available at the live hearing to give each party equal opportunity to refer to such evidence during the live hearing, including for purposes of questioning).

Each party will be given 10 days to submit a written response, which the Investigator will consider prior to completion of the investigative report.

Completion of the Investigative Report
Either after the Investigator receives the parties’ written responses or after the 10-day time limit has expired, the Investigator will create an investigative report that fairly summarizes the relevant evidence.

At least 10 days prior to the live hearing, the Investigator will send a copy of the investigative report in an electronic or hardcopy format to each party; their advisors, if applicable; and the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator. The parties will be given the opportunity to review the investigative report and provide a written response.
Assessment After the Investigative Report is Complete

Upon receiving the final investigative report, the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator will evaluate whether the alleged conduct, if proven, would constitute a Title IX violation because it meets or could meet the definition of Title IX sexual harassment and occurred within the jurisdiction and scope required by Title IX as described herein. If the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator determines that the conduct alleged in the investigative report, if proven, constitutes Title IX Sexual Harassment, then the complaint will be adjudicated in accordance with any and all specific procedures outlined in the Title IX Live Hearing Procedures section below. If the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator determines that the conduct alleged in the investigative report, if proven, would not constitute Title IX Sexual Harassment, then the complaint will be adjudicated in accordance with any and all specific procedures outlined in the Non-Title IX Live Hearing Procedures section below.

Live Hearing Procedures (For both Title IX and Non-Title IX Live Hearings)

Decision-Maker

Shortly after receiving the final investigative report, the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator will appoint a Decision-Maker. The Decision-Maker will be assigned to preside over the live hearing.

Written Response to the Final Investigative Report

Prior to scheduling the live hearing, the Decision-Maker will contact each party to provide a deadline for which they can submit their written responses to the final investigative report.

Live Hearing Schedule

Promptly after receiving the parties’ written responses, the Decision-Maker will provide the parties, their advisors, and witnesses with written notice of the live hearing date, time, and location. In this notice, the Decision-Maker will request the individuals inform the Decision-Maker right away if there is a scheduling conflict that would make it impossible for them to attend the live hearing.

Overview of the Live Hearing Process

At the request of either party, the University will provide for the live hearing to occur with the parties located in separate rooms. Live hearings may be conducted with all parties physically present in the same geographic location or, at the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator’s discretion, any or all parties, witnesses, and other participants may appear at the live hearing virtually. In either of the aforementioned situations, the University will provide technology that enables the participants to simultaneously see and hear each other. The appointed Decision-Maker will meet standards set out in the “Roles of Professionals Involved in the Informal and Formal Resolution Processes for Sexual Harassment” section above.

At the live hearing, the Decision-Maker will permit questions by the parties, as described in the Questioning sections of this policy below.

The University will create an audio or audiovisual recording, or transcript of any live hearing. The choice of whether it is an audio or audiovisual recording, or transcript is made in the sole discretion of the University. The audio or audiovisual recording, or transcript will be made available to both parties for inspection and review. In compliance with disability laws, the University will ensure that all parties are properly accommodated with respect to use of technology and reliance on visual, audio, or written communication.

The only persons permitted to attend the live hearing are the parties, their advisors, the witnesses, and designated University personnel. The witnesses are only to be in attendance at the live hearing during the time in which they are offering information or answering questions. Otherwise, the witnesses are to be waiting in a designated room (or virtual room) until called upon.

Standard of Evidence

Preponderance of the evidence is the standard of evidence to be used to determine whether a Respondent is responsible for the prohibited conduct alleged in the formal complaint. This is the standard of evidence that will be applied to all formal complaints of prohibited conduct described in this policy, regardless of whether the Respondent is a student or employee of the institution.
Questioning During Title IX Live Hearings

At the Title IX live hearing, the Decision-Maker will permit each party’s advisor to ask the other party and any witnesses all relevant questions and follow-up questions, including those challenging credibility.

Before a party or witness answers a question, the Decision-Maker must first determine whether the question is relevant and explain any decision to exclude a question as not relevant. The Decision-Maker has complete discretion to make relevancy determinations.

Advisors are required to engage with parties, witnesses, and the Decision-Maker in a respectful and non-aggressive manner.

Questions will be asked directly, orally, and in real-time from the advisors of the parties, not from the parties themselves. Advisors are permitted to ask the other party and witnesses relevant questions and follow-up questions, including questions which challenge credibility.

The advisor may only ask relevant questions to each party and witness. Repetitive questions asked at the Title IX live hearing may be deemed irrelevant.

If a party or witness does not submit to questions at the Title IX live hearing, the Decision-Maker will not rely on any statement of that party or witness in reaching a determination regarding responsibility. The Decision-Maker is prohibited from drawing an inference regarding the determination of responsibility based solely on a party’s or witness’ absence from the live hearing or refusal to answer questions.

Questioning During Non-Title IX Live Hearings

Advisors are not permitted to ask questions in non-Title IX live hearings. Rather, the parties will be given the opportunity to ask questions of the other parties by presenting those questions directly to the Decision-Maker. The Decision-Maker will first determine whether the question is relevant and explain any decision to exclude a question as not relevant. If the Decision-Maker determines the question is relevant, the Decision-Maker will pose the question to the Complainant, Respondent, or witness.

Written Determination of Responsibility

At the conclusion of the live hearing, the Decision-Maker will undertake an objective evaluation of all relevant evidence (including both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence). In addition, the Decision-Maker will not make any credibility determinations based on a person’s status as a Complainant, Respondent, or witness. Upon a determination of responsibility using the preponderance of the evidence standard described herein, the Decision-Maker will make their best effort to simultaneously issue a written determination regarding responsibility to both parties.

The written determination regarding responsibility will include:

- Identification of the allegations potentially constituting prohibited conduct;
- Findings of fact supporting the determination;
- Conclusions regarding the application of relevant policies to the facts;
- A statement of, and rationale for, the result as to each allegation, including a determination regarding responsibility, any disciplinary sanctions imposed on the Respondent, and whether remedies designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University's education program or activity will be provided by the University to the Complainant; and
- The University's procedures and permissible bases for the Complainant or Respondent to appeal.

The determination of responsibility will be deemed final on either of the following dates:

- If an appeal is filed, the date that the Appeal Officer provides the parties with the written determination of the result of the appeal; or
- If an appeal is not filed, the date on which an appeal would no longer be considered timely.

Exception for Title IX Complaints: In Title IX complaints, as required by federal law, the written determination of responsibility will also include the following information:

- A description of the procedural steps taken from the receipt of the formal complaint through the determination, including any notifications to the parties, interviews with parties and witnesses, site visits, methods used to gather other evidence, and live hearings held.

Remedies and/or Disciplinary Sanctions

Remedies will be designed to restore or preserve the Complainant’s equal access to the University’s education program or activity. Disciplinary actions may range from warnings to University dismissal or termination, depending on the magnitude and specifics of the violation. The types of prohibited conduct described in this policy are all serious offenses, and such violations are subject to any combination of conduct remedies or sanctions listed below.

The Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator is responsible for effective implementation of any remedies.

The range of possible disciplinary sanctions and remedies that the University may implement following any determination of responsibility are listed in Appendix B.

Appeals

Appeals for Dismissal of a Formal Complaint or Determination of Responsibility

Both parties have the option to appeal a dismissal of a formal complaint and/or the determination regarding responsibility on the following bases:

- A procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter;
- New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made, that could affect the outcome of the matter; and
- The Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator, Investigator(s), or Decision-Maker(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against Complainants or Respondents generally or the individual Complainant or Respondent that affected the outcome of the matter. If it is found that a party was aware of a potential bias or conflict of interest prior to the determination regarding responsibility and the party knowingly withheld that information from the University, the party will not be permitted to raise that allegation of bias or conflict of interest on appeal.

All appeals must be submitted in writing to the Appeal Officer within 5 days of receiving the written determination of responsibility.

Within 3 days of receiving the written appeal, the Appeal Officer will review the appeal to determine whether it falls within one of the three bases for appeal as described above. If it does, the University will promptly notify the other party when a valid appeal is filed and will implement appeal procedures equally for both parties. If it does not, the appealing party will be notified in writing.

The other party will be given 5 days from the date of notification of the appeal to submit a written response to the appeal to the Appeal Officer.

Either after receiving the other party’s written response to the appeal, or after the 5-day time limit has expired, the Appeal Officer will make a determination regarding the outcome of the appeal within 7 business days.

Upon a determination of the outcome of the appeal, the Appeal Officer will provide written notice of the decision to both parties and will make all reasonable efforts to simultaneously notify said parties. This written notice will describe the rationale for the result of the appeal.

The University will ensure that the Appeal Officer is not the Investigator, Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator, or the Decision-Maker.

Potential Delays in the Informal or Formal Resolution Processes

Salve Regina will make all reasonable efforts to abide by the timelines described throughout this policy. If the timeline for any stage of the informal resolution process or the formal complaint grievance process must be changed, the Complainant and Respondent will receive written notice of the temporary delay or limited extension of timeframes and the reasons for the change. Possible reasons for temporary delays or extensions of timeframes include, but are not limited to, the absence of a party or a party’s advisor, concurrent law enforcement activity, the need for language assistance or accommodation of disabilities, etc.

The Appeal Officer will abide by the procedures described in the “Roles of Professionals Involved in the Informal and Formal Resolution Processes for Sexual Harassment” section above.

Request for Extensions of Timelines from the Parties

If a party has good cause and needs an extension during the formal complaint grievance process, they can contact the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator to request such extension. It is within the Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator’s discretion to grant such a request. In the case that an extension is granted, the same extension will be given to the other party.
Time Limits
There is no time limit on reporting violations of this Policy, although the College’s ability to respond fully may be limited with the passage of time.

Written Explanation of Rights and Options
When an individual reports allegations of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, the University will provide the individual with a written explanation of rights and options.

Recordkeeping for Title IX Complaints Only
The Title IX regulations require specific records to be retained. As such, for Title IX complaints specifically, Salve Regina will document and maintain in University records for a period of seven years the following:

- All materials used to train Title IX and Anti-Discrimination Coordinator(s), Investigator(s), Decision-Maker(s), and Facilitator(s) of Informal Resolution Processes. The University will make these training materials publicly available on its website;
- Any informal resolution and the results therefrom;
- Any actions, including any supportive measures, taken in response to a report or formal complaint of sexual harassment. In each instance of actions taken in response to Title IX reports or formal complaints, the University will document the basis for its conclusion that its response was not deliberately indifferent, and document that it has taken measures designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University’s education program or activity. If the University does not provide a Complainant in Title IX cases with supportive measures, then the University must document the reasons why such a response was not clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances;
- Each anti-discrimination formal investigation, including any determination regarding responsibility and any audio or audiovisual recording or transcript of the live hearing;
- Any disciplinary sanctions imposed on the Respondent, and any remedies provided to the Complainant designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University’s education program or activity; and
- Any appeal and the result therefrom.

Additional Information

Bystander Intervention refers to safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual(s) to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of discrimination or sexual harassment, including sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, or stalking, against a person(s) other than the individual. Safe and positive options for bystander intervention include:

- Recognizing prohibited conduct and situations of potential harm;
- Understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence;
- Overcoming barriers to intervening; and
- Identifying effective ways to intervene and take action, provided that the intervention or action can be undertaken in a way that ensures the safety of the bystander. A description of the University’s educational and primary prevention and awareness programs, including bystander intervention, can be found in the University’s most recent Annual Security Report.

Risk Reduction is defined as options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, increase empowerment in order to promote safety, and help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence. A description of the University’s educational and primary prevention and awareness programs, including risk reductions, can be found in the University’s most recent Annual Security Report.

Preserving Evidence: In cases of sexual violence, including sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, and stalking, as defined herein, it critical that the Complainant preserve evidence because doing so may assist in proving that the alleged behavior occurred and/or may be helpful in obtaining a protective order.

Resources: The University will provide written notification about existing resources and services, which may include counseling, health, mental health, advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and other resources and services that may be available at the University and in the community. The written information may include options for, available assistance in, and how to request changes to academic, living, transportation, and working situations; or protective measures. The University will make requested accommodations and protective measures if they are reasonably available, regardless of whether a report is made to Safety and Security or local law enforcement.
Disciplinary Sanctions and Remedies

Students
Students who are found responsible for violating this policy may be subject to one or more of the following disciplinary actions. Action may range from warning to expulsion, depending on the magnitude and specifics of the infraction.

Warning – a warning (either verbal or written), is an official notice to the student that their behavior has violated the Student Code of Conduct. A letter of warning serves as notification to the student that further misconduct/violations may result in additional disciplinary action.

Developmental sanction – an assigned task or tasks intended to involve the student in a positive learning experience appropriate to the violation. Developmental sanctions of this type include, but are not limited to: alcohol education workshop (i.e. BASICS, etc.), reflection paper, educational project, My Student Body Conduct Course, and/or involvement with an established university program or committee.

Community Restitution – uncompensated work/service on campus or off campus at a non-profit community service agency. Students assigned community restitution may also be assigned a reflection paper about their experience.

Restitution – compensation for loss, damage, repair, replacement or injury. This may take the form of appropriate service, monetary or material replacement.

Fine – a monetary fee/financial sanction imposed for specific infractions and/or cost associated with participation in a required program.

Loss of Privileges – denial of specific privileges for a designated period of time.

Parental/Guardian Notification – notification of parents/guardians when a student has violated the University’s alcohol or drug policy, when there is a serious health or safety issue regarding a student, or if a student’s residency or student status is in jeopardy.

Counseling/Health Services Referral – a referral to the Counseling Center or Health Services or another appropriate office for consultation or assessment. The number of counseling sessions in which the student participates is at the discretion of the student’s counselor.

No Contact Order – imposed in instances where it is determined that a student may pose a threat to another student. This order, specific to a person and/or location, prohibits the subject from having direct or indirect contact with the person requesting the No Contact Order. The No Contact Order specifically includes communication through email, mail, phone, instant message, text, social media, face to face, or any contact through a third party. A No Contact Order may be imposed prior to a hearing, as a result of a hearing, or in lieu of a hearing. Violation of a No Contact Order may result in further adjudication, up to and including interim suspension from the university.

Residence Hall Relocation – required assignment to another residence area.

Residence Hall Probation – a written reprimand for violation of the Student Code of Conduct. This sanction is for a defined period of time and includes the probability of more severe disciplinary sanctions if the student is found responsible for any additional violations during the probationary period.

Residence Hall Suspension – separation of the student from their residence hall for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to return. Reapplication for housing does not guarantee immediate placement. Conditions for returning to the residence halls may be specified.

Residence Hall Dismissal – permanent separation of the student from the residence halls.

Disciplinary Probation – a sanction indicating that a student’s behavior has placed themselves on a disciplinary status that is close to suspension. It is imposed for a specific period of time. Any further violations while on University Probation may result in suspension and/or dismissal from the University.

Deferred Suspension – a warning that a student may be immediately separated from the University if found responsible for any further violations of the Student Code of Conduct during a specific period of time.

Suspension – separation of the student from the University for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to return. Conditions for readmission may be specified. During a period of suspension the student is not allowed on campus or at university sponsored events.

University Dismissal – permanent separation of the student from the University. Student is not eligible to reapply.

Interim Action – In certain situations, the Vice President for Student Affairs, Dean of Students or designee, may take interim action against a student. This interim action may include but is not limited to: removal or ban from a residence hall (s) or University suspension, pending a hearing. Such actions will only occur if, in the Vice President for Student Affairs’, Dean of Students’ or designee’s judgment, the student is a danger to themselves or other members or parts of the University community, or if the student is disruptive/disorderly community member who is infringing on the rights of others. In such instances, the hearing officer will meet with the student as soon as practical to hear the case. As soon as practical after the interim action, the hearing officer shall prepare and deliver to the removed student a notice of charges and other information in conformance with the student conduct hearing process.

Employees
Employees who are found responsible for violating this policy may be subject to one or more of the following disciplinary actions. Action may range from warning to termination, depending on the magnitude and specifics of the infraction.

Verbal warning – an official verbal notice to the employee that their behavior is not acceptable and may have violated this University policy. Documentation of the delivery of a verbal warning should always be placed in the supervisors file on the employee.

Written warning – an official written notice to the employee that their behavior is not acceptable and may have violated this University policy. This written notice is signed by the employee and the employee’s supervisor and is placed in both supervisor’s file on the employee and the employee’s file in the Office of Human Resources.

Developmental sanction – an assigned task or tasks intended to involve the employee in a positive learning experience appropriate to the violation. Developmental sanctions of this could include, but are not limited to training, mediation, coaching or a performance improvement plan.

Change in responsibilities or supervisory role – a modification of the employee’s job duties or a change in a supervisory role.

Suspension with pay – a separation of the employee from the University for a definitive period of time with pay.

Suspension without pay – a separation of the employee from the University for a definitive period of time without pay.

Termination – a permanent separation of the employee from the University.

Information on the University’s Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence Policy and Procedures as it pertains to its employees can be found in the staff handbook at the link below:

Anonymous Reporting
If you are sexually assaulted and do not want to pursue action within the University system or the criminal justice system at this time, you may still want to consider having an anonymous report made. The report form is available at Counseling Services, Health Services, the Dean of Students Office, and the Title IX Coordinator’s Office; the details of the incident can be reported to the Office of Safety and Security without revealing your identity. The purpose of an anonymous report is to comply with your wish to keep the matter private while taking steps to ensure future safety for yourself and others. With such information, the University can keep accurate records about the number of assaults involving students; determine whether there is a pattern of assaults with regard to particular location, method, or assailant; and alert the campus community to potential danger.

University Primary Prevention and Awareness Programs

The University recognizes the importance of providing education and training to prevent dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. These issues are addressed through the First Year Transition Class, Residence Life, and a variety of other programs. Residence Life staff and Safety and Security staff are specifically trained to respond to these situations. In-service training is available for staff and faculty. Salve Regina University prohibits the crimes of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking.

The above named issues are addressed through the First Year Transitions (FYT) course, Residence Hall programming, and a variety of other programs listed below:

FYT Sexual Violence Prevention Content
Students in FYT receive two classes of content surrounding Title IX, Salve Regina’s Sexual Misconduct Policy, how to report, resources on campus, alcohol use, and bystander intervention. Title IX is defined, and the Sexual Misconduct Policy is outlined thoroughly. Students are educated on what a CSA and Responsible Employee is and what their responsibilities are. After the two classes, students should feel informed on policies, procedures, and support/resources on campus. (annually)

New Student Orientation: “Safety in the Community”
Campus safety protocol and prevention is covered in the new student orientation program prior to the academic year beginning. The Director of Safety and Security along with Officers from the Newport and Middletown Police Departments speak to first year students about the dangers associated with the city. Fire Safety, the RAVE Emergency Notification System and University Transportation is also discussed with these students.

“Civility/Alcohol and Sexual Violence Awareness”
Every Fall Semester, all first year students go through a one-hour program during Week of Welcome (by the speakers from Safe and Civil Campus) that proactively addresses the topics of sexual assault, dating violence, stalking, civility, alcohol, and bystander invention, as well as other Title IX and VAWA compliant sexual assault prevention information. (annually)

Culture of Respect Collective
As part of Salve Regina’s continued commitment to addressing campus sexual violence, we have joined the Culture of Respect Collective through NASPA and received a grant from the Rhode Island Department of Health for our participation. The Collective is an ambitious two-year program that brings together institutions of higher education who are dedicated to ending campus sexual violence and guides them through a rigorous process of self-assessment and targeted organizational change. The program is grounded in an expert-developed public health framework, cross campus collaboration, and peer-led learning to make meaningful programmatic and policy changes. As part of Salve’s participation, we will receive strategic support and technical assistance throughout the process, as well as detailed documentation of campus-initiated changes that support survivors, prevent sexual violence, and communicate that violence is unacceptable. (application was approved and grant accepted in November 2019, program commenced January 2020)

My Student Body
Salve Regina offers MyStudentBody as part of its Orientation/First Year Transitions program. MyStudentBody is a comprehensive, evidence-based, online prevention program aimed at reducing the risk of drug and alcohol abuse and sexual violence among college students. MyStudentBody gives students the tools to choose behaviors that help them successfully navigate the social pressures of the campus life and achieve academic success.

Workplace Harassment Training
Non-supervising staff and faculty were required to take the following courses:
Each course provides learners with the basics around discrimination, harassment and sexual violence. Including scenarios designed to help you navigate common trouble areas.
- Mosaic: Prevent Sexual Violence Together
- Mosaic: Prevent Discrimination and Harassment Together: Faculty and Staff
Supervising staff, faculty and chairs were required to take the following courses:

Each course provides learners with the basics around discrimination, harassment and sexual violence. Including scenarios designed to help you navigate common trouble areas.

The Avoiding Supervisory Pitfalls course focuses on teaching new and/or experienced supervisors how to prevent unfair treatment of subordinates and recognizes scenarios that might be construed as discriminatory.

- Mosaic: Prevent Sexual Violence Together
- Mosaic: Prevent Discrimination and Harassment Together: Supervisors
- Avoiding Supervisory Pitfalls

The University will take all reasonable steps to ensure that the policy prohibiting sexual violence and sexual harassment is followed by students, employees, supervisors and others who have contact with members of the campus community. The prevention plan includes online and in-service training sessions, ongoing monitoring of the University and annual distribution of policies and procedures to employees (new employees).

Prevention/Education Programming

Informational Tabling – Salve SAVES provided education throughout the year to the student body through tabling events. In 2020 Salve SAVES conducted a tabling campaign around health relationships and teen dating violence. Educational materials were provided to students. In September 2020, tabling was conducted in the dining hall lobby offering information and resources, and information on sexual assault. There were multiple tabling campaigns around healthy relationships, consent, and dating violence, including: CAB’s Apple Cider Event and My Costume is Not My Consent.

Green Dot Day – Community members wore the color green to show support for the Green Dot program, which has been teaching students, staff, and faculty on campus about effective bystander techniques and how to create a campus culture that eliminates sexual violence and harassment.

Clothesline Project – A powerful display on sexual violence statistics, stories, and education.

International Denim Day – Denim Day is a day of support for victims of sexual assault. The campaign was formed after an Italian Supreme Court case in which a rape conviction was overturned. The court cited the fact that the victim was wearing tight jeans proved she must have removed them herself, implying consent. By solidarity and wearing jeans, we show support for victims as well as acknowledgment of the misconceptions that surround sexual assault and consent.

My Costume is Not My Consent – During Halloween Week 2020 the Peer Wellness Educators and Dean of Students Office provided educational information via social media regarding Consent, called “My Costume is not my Consent”. This included: definitions on consent, stickers for students to wear, and information about resources both on and off campus.

SalveSAVES Costume Party – Food, mocktails, games, dancing and educational tabling event on consent awareness.

RA Training and Programs – Returning and new Residence Life Staff received online training on University policies, procedures, resources and definitions, and an exam was administered to evaluate their knowledge. New Residence Life Staff were also trained on responding to and reporting incidents involving sexual misconduct and completed bulletin boards on Title IX/Consent in their Residence Halls. RA’s further undergo Campus Security Authority (CSA) Training, identifying their roles and specific reporting requirements.

OL Training and Programs – Returning and new Orientation Leaders received training on University policies, procedures, resources, and definitions around sexual assault and bystander behavior. OL’s also receive tips on how to report any incidents they may witness or hear about during Orientation and the academic semester.

Department of Athletics Sexual Violence Prevention – All student athletes receive educational training on sexual assault prevention. In 2020 student athletes were enrolled in an online training provided in cooperation with Human Resources and the Title IX office, titled “Impressions”. The course examines sexual assault, what it is, how to report it, support resources on campus, and ways you can prevent it.

Department of Athletics Team Meeting Education – Annual team meetings to go over required rules and regulations for Salve Regina as well as the NCAA. program is “How to be a Seahawk”. There is education on Title IX, health and wellness, gambling restrictions and on Hazing.

Department of Athletics:

Northeastern Center for Sport in Society. Subject matter for the training was Equity, Inclusion and Bystander Education. This was a zoom meeting with leaders from each class for football team. 30 total student-athletes.

Duane DuFour: Subject matter for the training was Leadership, Equity, Inclusion, Sexual Assault Prevention Rear Admiral Chatfield, Leadership. This was a zoom training for members of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Probably about 26 students attended and administrators.

Caroline Swords, WNBA player, Topic matter for this was on Leadership and Navigating Difficult Times, this was a program for the Captains of all teams done by zoom. It was attended by about 55 student-athletes and staff.

Taylor Hooten Foundation, The subject matter for this was on making smart Choices and substances care. We had 60 student-athletes attend.

Online NCAA Sexual Assault Prevention Training was given to all student-athletes. Approximately 500.

Climate Survey Data Release Event – In spring 2020 a new Climate Survey was launched. Results included a significant increase in Title IX Knowledge. A comparative report has been prepared, showing data, goals accomplished, and action steps/long term goals for the future.

National Wear Purple Day - Domestic Violence Awareness Event – Through cross-campus collaboration, Salve Regina held its first annual Go Purple Day to provide education and support of Domestic Violence Awareness Month (October). Wear Purple Day is a day to honor survivors and raise awareness of domestic violence, dating violence and signs of both healthy and unhealthy relationships. Hosted by the Peer Well-ness Educators, Counseling Services, and Campus Activities Board, Salve Regina community members were encouraged to wear purple and participate in tableting and giveaway events throughout the day. Wearing purple on this day says that the University’s community believes everyone deserves a healthy, affirming, respectful and supportive relationship. Wearing purple says that the campus is committed to believing a survivor’s experiences.

#RICampusPreventSA – Salve Regina University participated in a month long campaign with other universities around the state of Rhode Island to combat rape culture and advocate for change during Sexual Assault Awareness Month (April). Content included sharing educational information regarding awareness, root causes, survivors support, how to help a friend, local and campus resources, and bystander trainings as they relate to sexual assault. This collaboration included working with local organizations, including The Sojourn House, and Day One RI, to provide free resources and events to students at each participating institution.

Prevention of a Sexual Offense

Through FYT classes, Residence Life programs and Exploration, the University creates awareness that people can be and often are sexually assaulted by friends, family, neighbors, dates, acquaintances, co-workers, strangers, etc. You cannot assume that you will not be a victim of harassment, sexual assault, or rape – even on a college campus. Regardless of what you did or did not do, if you are assaulted, remember it is not your fault, and you have the right to take action through the University conduct system and the criminal justice system as well (annually).

Health Services Programs

Health services has been engaged in activities to improve awareness, support, and resources for transgender students. Staff participated in “@Risk: Transgender Issues in Healthcare: The Time Has Come,” an online course offered by Lifespan that offered a deep dive into the issues transgender people may face when accessing healthcare, along with helpful definitions, example scenarios, best practice information, and other resources.
Violence Prevention and Awareness to help guide treatment of transgender students.

Tips for Intervening

In a situation potentially involving sexual assault, relationship violence, or stalking:
- Approach everyone as a friend
- Do not be antagonistic
- Avoid using violence
- Be honest and direct whenever possible
- Recruit help if necessary
- Keep yourself safe
- If things get out of hand or become too serious, contact Security or the police

Options
- Step in and separate two people. Let them know your concerns and reasons for intervening. Be a friend and let them know you are acting in their best interest. Make sure each person makes it home safely.
- Use a distraction to redirect the focus somewhere else: “Hey, I need to talk to you.” or “Hey, this party is lame. Let’s go somewhere else.”
- Evaluate the situation and people involved to determine your best move. You could directly intervene yourself, or alert friends of each person to come in and help. If the person reacts badly, try a different approach.
- Recruit the help of friends of both people to step in as a group.
- Divert the attention of one person away from the other person. Have someone standing by to redirect the other person’s focus. Commit a party foul (i.e. spilling your drink) if you need to.

Risk Reduction

Risk reduction means options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.

Risk Reduction Tips

Salve Regina University believes it is never the victim’s fault when a sexual assault occurs. However, recognizing patterns can help students reduce both the risk of victimization and the risk of perpetrating.

Generally, sexual assault by a known offender follows a pattern:

Steps in the Sexual Assault Sequence:
1. Target and gain the victim’s trust
2. Isolate the victim
3. Sexual exploitation/assault
4. Maintaining control

Helpful Safety Tips

1. Be aware of your surroundings. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help in finding a way out of an uncomfortable or unsafe situation.
2. When you go out, go with a group of friends. Take care of your friends and ask them to take care of you.
3. When you hang out with someone new, let one of your friends know and give them a heads up about who you are with and where you are going. Ask them to check in with you.
4. Trust your instincts. If you feel uncomfortable or unsafe in any situation, trust your gut.
5. Don’t accept drinks from people you do not know or trust. Avoid large common sources of alcohol (such as punch bowls, large containers of mixed drinks).

Tips for Consent

If you find yourself in a position of being the initiator of sexual behavior, you owe sexual respect to your partner.

1. Do not make assumptions about:
   a. Consent;
   b. Someone’s sexual availability;
   c. Whether a person is attracted to you;
   d. How far you can go; or
   e. Whether a person is physically or mentally able to consent to you.

   (If there are any questions or confusion, then you do NOT have consent)

2. Clearly communicate your intentions to your sexual partner and give them a chance to clearly communicate their intentions to you.

3. Mixed, confusing, or unclear messages from your partner should be a clear indication that you should stop. Perhaps you are misreading your partner, or perhaps your partner has not figured out how far they want to go with you yet. You must respect the timeline for sexual behavior which your partner is comfortable.

4. Do not take advantage of someone’s intoxication or drugged state. Know the signs of incapacitation.

5. Understand that consent to some forms of sexual behavior does not necessarily imply consent to other forms of sexual behavior.

6. Silence and passivity cannot be interpreted as consent. Pay attention to verbal as well as non-verbal communication and body language.

7. Never force someone to have sex with you, or have sex with a partner who has not clearly consented to you by words or actions unmistakable in their meaning.
Prevention Tips:
• Keep all doors and windows secured at home and in your residence hall room whether or not you are there. A high percentage of sexual assaults occur in the victim’s place of residence.
• Do not prop open security doors.
• Be especially aware of security during vacation periods when there are fewer people on campus.
• Use paths that are well populated when you walk, jog, or bike.
• If you wear earphones while jogging or biking, be advised that they reduce your awareness as well as your ability to hear.
• Don’t hitchhike – ever.
• Have your keys ready in your hand when going to your car.
• Your car doors should be locked and the windows up when parked and when you’re driving through stop and go traffic.
• Never walk alone in secluded areas.
• Take special precautions in parking lots, stairwells, elevators, bathrooms, and dark areas with shrubbery. Studies show that many assaults by strangers occur in these places.
• If you suspect that you are being followed, go to a place where there are other people as soon as possible. If you choose to run, run as fast as you are able and scream to attract attention or summon help.
• Follow your instincts. If you sense that you may be at risk or in danger, try to get out of the situation. For example, if you see a suspicious looking person or someone who makes you feel uncomfortable, leave the area. Report your suspicions to the Office of Safety and Security.

How to Prevent Acquaintance Rape:
• Say “no” when you mean “no.” Communicate your limits clearly. Know what you are feeling and express yourself clearly.
• Be assertive. Passivity might be misinterpreted as permission. Be direct and firm with someone who is pressuring you sexually. If someone starts to offend you, respond promptly and firmly. Overly polite approaches might be misunderstood or ignored.
• Trust your intuition. If you feel you are being pressured into unwanted sexual relations, do not hesitate to express your unwillingness, even if it might appear rude. Leave the situation as soon as possible.
• Think ahead about getting home. Be prepared when you are away from home to be able to leave the situation if necessary. Coordinate plans with friends and arrange transportation. Always carry cab fare.
• Attend large parties with friends you can trust. Agree to look out for one another.
• Avoid excessive use of alcohol and drugs. Alcohol and drugs interfere with clear thinking, effective communication, and your ability to respond in your own best interest. Remember: the legal drinking age in Rhode Island is 21.
• If by force or threats you compel a person to have sex against one’s will – even if you know the person or have had consensual sex before – you are committing a rape. Even if you think the person has been teasing and leading you on. Even if you have heard that people say “no” but mean “yes.” Even if you think it’s manly to use force to get your way.
• Being turned down for sexual relations is not necessarily a rejection of you personally. A person who says “no” to sexual relations is expressing one’s unwillingness to participate in a specific act at a specific time.
• Accept your partner’s decision. “No” means “no.” Don’t read in other meanings. Don’t continue after the person says “no.”
• Don’t assume that just because a person flirts or dresses in a manner you consider sexually arousing that the individual wants to engage in sexual relations.
• Watch your beverage to avoid victimization through the addition of a date rape drug such as GHB or Rohypnol.
• Don’t assume that previous permission for sexual relations means a person is under a continuing obligation to have sex with you.
• Don’t assume that your date wants the same degree of intimacy that you do.
• Don’t assume spending money on a date entitles you to sex.
• Don’t force anyone either verbally or physically to have sex with you.
• Don’t allow others to attempt forced sex with another person.
Alcohol and Other Drugs – Statement addressing Possession, Use and Sale

The University is strongly committed to achieving a living and learning environment that promotes the University’s mission. University policy is intended to educate members of the University community about the health risks associated with the use and abuse of alcohol and other drugs and about the campus and community resources available for counseling and therapy. The university complies with all federal, state and local laws concerning alcohol and illegal drugs.

Standards of Conduct
Offenses Involving Alcohol, Substances, Products and Drugs, including but not limited to use, possession, manufacturing, distribution, or being in the presence of intoxicants (e.g. alcohol), illegal drugs, drug-related paraphernalia (e.g., rolling papers, grinders, bong or pipe), including legal materials when used for drug-related purposes or other controlled substances, except as expressly permitted by law and as expressly permitted by University regulations; intoxication by any person.

All chemicals, substances, prescriptions, or other products that have mood-altering capabilities are prohibited, except by their intended user and directed by their medical provider. Alcoholic beverages may not, in any circumstance, be used by, possessed by, be in the presence of, or distributed to any person under twenty-one (21) years of age. This includes drinking games and/or possession of a drinking game or the use or possession of board games, game table, ice luge, beer funnel, beer tap or other device that promotes or encourages abusive drinking. For more information, see “Alcohol and Other Drugs”, in Policies and Procedures of the Student Handbook, p. 40, also “Residence Life Alcohol Policy” in Residence Life p. 38.

Alcohol (Under 21 years of age)
Salve Regina University does not allow alcoholic beverages or related drinking paraphernalia of any kind in residence facilities that house students who are under the legal drinking age (21). Students who are found in possession or in the presence of alcohol are in violation of University policy. Moreover, intoxicated students will be subject to disciplinary action and may be required to be transported to the hospital for treatment. Empty alcohol bottles used in a student’s room for decoration are prohibited.

1. The sale of alcoholic beverages is prohibited except in designated venues at times and dates specified by the University.
2. In the State of Rhode Island, it is against the law for persons under 21 years of age to possess or consume alcohol of any kind. The University enforces all federal, state and local laws concerning possession and/or consumption of alcohol. However, enforcement options may include criminal charges as well as a referral to the Dean of Students Office for possible disciplinary sanctions.
3. The furnishing of alcoholic beverages to underage persons is also against the Rhode Island state law.
4. Alcohol cannot be consumed or carried in open containers on any street, sidewalk, alley, automobile or public area.

Alcohol (21 years of age and older)
Salve Regina University extends the privilege of possessing alcohol to those students 21 years of age and older in designated areas. Those students wishing to take advantage of this privilege must complete and sign the Alcohol Policy Participation Form with the Area Coordinator that oversees their residence hall. A gathering of students where alcohol is present and being consumed cannot consist of more than double the occupancy of that specific room, apt. or suite (including the residents of that area) and all guests present must possess IDs specifying proof of age 21 or older. No guest under 21 is permitted at gatherings where alcohol is present.

A gathering of students may be terminated at any time when University officials determine the gathering presents a threat to the health and/or safety of the community, is a disruption to the community, or is in violation of any University policies.

The University reserves the right to limit and/or dispose of any excessive or unsafe amounts of alcohol at the discretion of University officials. The regulation or limitation on possession and storage in no way is meant to suggest that the consumption of the permitted amounts or any variation of during a single episode is safe, healthy or appropriate.

Alcohol is not permitted in any residence hall common area. The consumption of alcohol is limited to the indoor area of the host's residence only. Under no circumstance shall an open container of alcohol be permitted anywhere outdoors. Students must not disrupt the learning and living activities of others.

An individual student's privilege to possess alcohol may be terminated or suspended at any time based upon violation of this policy, violation of law, misuse of alcohol, or other failure to prove responsible use. Drugs

Use of illegal drugs and the unlawful possession, use and sale of alcohol by students and employees on University property are prohibited. The Office of Safety and Security enforces Rhode Island drinking laws and local ordinances on campus. Violators are subject to University sanctions and possible arrest by local law enforcement.

All federal, state, and local laws regarding illegal drugs will be strictly enforced. Specifically, the transport, possession, possession with intent to manufacture, purchase, sale, distribution, use, or being in the presence of illegal drugs or controlled substances is prohibited and may be punishable by suspension or dismissal from the University. Prescription drugs must be taken by patients only for the intended use and in the prescribed manner as directed by their doctor. Possession of drug-related paraphernalia is prohibited (e.g., marijuana rolling papers, bong or pipe). All chemicals, substances or other products that have mood-altering capabilities are prohibited except for their intended use.

STATEMENT ON MARIJUANA: Rhode Island law currently permits with certain restrictions (e.g. prohibited on any school grounds) the use of marijuana for persons possessing a lawfully issued medical marijuana card. In addition, effective April 1, 2013, Rhode Island law was amended to decriminalize a limited amount (one ounce or less) of marijuana from a misdemeanor to a civil offense for the first and second violations in an 18 month period.

It is important to note, however, that federal law still prohibits the use, possession, distribution, sale or cultivation of marijuana. As an educational institution that receives federal funds, Salve Regina University must comply with federal law under the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989 (20 U.S.C. Section 1011i).

Accordingly, the use, possession, distribution, sale or cultivation of marijuana remains prohibited for all students on and off campus via the Student Code of Conduct. However, students who possess a lawfully issued medical marijuana card and use marijuana for that purpose in private, off-campus residences will be exempt from University policy in that regard.

Drug and Alcohol abuse programs:

As required The Drug-Free Schools and Community Act (DFSCA)

Alcohol use or possession on University property is not permitted except at officially sanctioned University functions. It is illegal to manufacture, distribute, dispense, possess, or use controlled substances on University property. Employees must notify the University within five days of any criminal drug arrest, arraignment and conviction.

The University is committed to the safety and well-being of community members and a drug-free workplace. Excessive alcohol consumption or use of illicit substances impairs individual functioning, changes behavior and subjects users to serious health risks, including disease, addiction and death.

First year Transition (FYT) Sexual Violence Prevention Content

Students in FYT receive two classes of content surrounding Title IX, Salve Regina’s Sexual Misconduct Policy, how to report, resources on campus, alcohol use, and bystander intervention. Title IX is defined, and the Sexual Misconduct Policy is outlined thoroughly. Students are educated on what a CSA and Responsible Employee is and what their responsibilities are. After the two classes, students should feel informed on policies, procedures, and support/resources on campus.

Civility/Alcohol and Sexual Violence Awareness

Every Fall Semester, all first year students go through a one hour program during Exploration (by the speakers from Safe and Civil Campus) that proactively addresses the topics of sexual assault, dating violence, stalking, civility, alcohol, and bystander intervention, as well as other Title IX and VAWA compliant sexual assault prevention information.

My Student Body

My Student Body is designed to reduce risky student behavior using strategies that research has shown are most effective—motivational, attitudinal, and skill-training interventions. More than a one-time through prevention course, My Student Body is available for information on drugs, alcohol, sexual violence, and other health and wellness issues that can affect their academic success.

Health Services Programs

In 2020, the Office of Health Services delivered several programs that directly served 2,100 undergraduate Salve students. The goal was to contribute to and coordinate with on-campus departments’ programs to provide a multidiscipline and collaborative approach to health on the Salve Campus. These efforts highlighted student health concerns, including transitioning to college, staying healthy on campus, surviving finals, sleep, stress reduction, safe travel, alcohol safety, body image, heart health, early detection and prevention (such as HIV screening, Flu clinics), and an in-office wellness initiative screening.

Residence Hall AOD Programming and Trainings

Each of the 40 Resident Advisors (RAs) are required to complete 1 alcohol/drug related physical or passive program per semester for their resident students, including: bulletin boards, mocktail parties, programs using our “drunk goggles”, etc.

Every RA is required to complete “Behind Closed Doors” with alcohol and drug related scenario’s. We have returning RA’s act out ways in which residents will react when under the influence and have new and returning RA’s address the situation to be better prepared. We also discuss the irrational behaviors that can occur with drinking and the appropriate conversations that should be had with someone under the influence. Twice per semester, the Office of Residence Life performs health and safety inspections, often resulting in the discovery of alcohol/drug related items. This creates an opportunity to address the matter through the University conduct system, permitting educational conversations with students about university policy.

Below are a few of the residence hall trainings accomplished in 2020:

Junior Alcohol programming – focused on using technology while under the influence. The Wii was used in an upper classmen residence hall. Participants of the program learned about how alcohol can impair vision. Participants utilized “drunk goggles” while playing. It became interactive with a handout as well.

Sophomore Programming – RA’s held a “mocktail” program, focusing on the reality of making a drink. How much is too much and the affects that it can have after consuming too much alcohol. The program allowed the residents to create their own mocktails that would be similar alcoholic drinks. The program featured cups to show measurements and information about the effects of alcohol on your body.

The Hangover – This program focused on the body and what a hangover looks like, and why your body feels the way that it does after drinking. The program was also paired with watching the movie the hangover. This program highlighted the negative effects excessive drinking can have on the body.

Blurred Lines – This program worked on hand/eye coordination. It was a paint night program that focused on your motor skills and following directions while being visually impaired. The residents had to paint what they saw while wearing different strength alcohol goggles. This program was a creative way for them to paint and have a little fun, while understanding the effects that alcohol has on motor skills.

Friday Night Live – The Office of Student Activities also hosts Friday Night Live Events as alternative events to prevent drinking. Friday Night Live is a series that provides events every Friday Night, ranging from speakers, carnivals, movies, casino nights, paint nights, and more.

Other alcohol and drug programming from the Office of Student Activities:
- Programs and events targeted for on- & off-campus juniors and seniors 21+ to promote and encourage responsible drinking i.e. Paint Night (cash bar), Seahawk Village Beer Garden and CAB Carnival Beer Garden.
- Salve Nights - Late Night Student Activity Programs that occurs every night of the week

National Alcohol Screening Day (NASD)

Annually, the Office of Counseling Services offers the NASD College Screening form, consisting of 10 questions on alcohol use which from the Alcohol Use Disorders Identification Test (AUDIT) and another 13 questions on demographics.

SASSI

Students who struggle with alcohol or drug abuse may seek assistance from University Counseling Services. Substance Abuse Subtle Screening Inventory (SASSI) is a brief, easily administered psychological questionnaire. It is available in both adult and adolescent versions, as well as versions for diverse cultures, including those with disabilities & vocational rehabilitation participants. The SASSI can identify people who may have a Substance Use Disorder with a high degree of accuracy – even when someone is reluctant to self-disclose.

The tool identifies high or low probability of substance use disorders. It also provides a measure of profile validity and clinical insight into level of defensiveness and willingness to acknowledge experienced consequences of substance use disorder. An alcohol assessment always includes a clinician narrative assessment with the student in addition to the assessment tool. https://www.sassi.com/

BASICS

Brief Alcohol Screening intervention for College Students was utilized in 2020. It is a harm-reduction intervention for college students which aims to reduce alcohol consumption and its adverse consequences, promote healthier choices among young adults and provide important information and coping skills for reducing risk.
Unfounded Crimes
The University may withhold, or subsequently remove, a reported crime from its crime statistics in the rare situation where sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel have fully investigated the reported crime and, based on the results of this full investigation and evidence, have made a formal determination that the crime report is false or baseless and therefore “unfounded.” Only sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel may “unfound” a crime report for purposes of reporting under this section. The recovery of stolen property, the low value of stolen property, the refusal of the victim to cooperate with the prosecution, and the failure to make an arrest do not “unfound” a crime report. The University Office of Safety and Security must report and disclose in its annual security report statistics the total number of crime reports of this section that were “unfounded” and subsequently withheld from its crime statistics pursuant to this section during each of the three most recent calendar years.

Annual Crime Statistics
The following statistics represent those categories which are reportable under the Crime Awareness and Campus Safety Act of 1990. These statistics are for the calendar years indicated. If you should have any questions contact the Director of Safety and Security at (401) 341-2334. The information regarding ‘public property’ was obtained from the Newport, Middletown, Portsmouth, and Warwick Police departments. Salve Regina maintains athletic fields in Newport, Middletown and Portsmouth, and non-residential academic facility in Warwick.

Annual Fire Reporting/2020

Overview
The Higher Education Opportunity Act (Public Law 110-315) became law in August 2008. It requires all United States academic institutions of higher education by August 2010 to produce an annual fire safety report outlining fire safety practices, standards, and all fire-related on-campus statistics. The following public disclosure report details all information required by this law as it relates to Salve Regina University.

Fire Safety Improvements and Upgrades
Salve Regina University reviews the fire safety systems in our residence halls and apartments and will make upgrades, repairs or revisions when problems are identified. Licensed technicians certify these systems are properly working as prescribed by Rhode Island State Fire Codes.

Fire Safety Education - Office of Safety and Security

Overview
Safety and Security fire safety education begins during the Orientation sessions with a video discussing fire safety and with various handouts pertaining to this issue. The article below is provided to all parents and students during Orientation and is online:

“Fire Safety is Everyone’s Concern”
Michael A. Caruolo
Director of Safety and Security

Each year college and university residence hall fires lead to injury, millions of dollars of property damage and even loss of life at American colleges and universities. The Salve Regina Office of Safety and Security firmly believes that the first step in fire safety is education. Education can help prevent a large percentage of fires. An informed student body will be less careless and can avoid conditions that start fires.

Campus fire safety is a serious concern as witnessed by the many opportunities to learn about fire safety. Fire safety education at Salve Regina begins with freshman Orientation. At Orientation you are educated regarding those items that are not permitted in any of the residence halls. These include candles, incense, cooking appliances, ceiling decorations, space heaters, halogen lamps, black lights and lava lamps. The walls in your room cannot be covered with paper products beyond ten percent. Statistically, these particular items are some of the leading causes of fires on college and university campuses. You are further educated regarding the proper size microwave and refrigerators permitted in your room and in the use of a heavy-duty extension cord to be used in conjunction with a surge protector. The installation of a fire evacuation route and a separate evacuation safety procedure list in each residence hall room is a further step in the student’s education.

Salve Regina’s Offices of Safety and Security, Residence Life and Facilities work in daily partnership to prevent and seek solutions to any fire safety issues that may arise in the residence halls and apartments. Constant attention is also paid to fire safety during quarterly inspections of sprinkler systems, smoke alarms, heat sensors, and commercial kitchen suppression systems by licensed technicians. The three room inspections and four fire drills per academic year are also tools by which we educate you and help to ensure campus fire safety. Two of these four fire drills are regarded as ‘obstructed drills’ where we pre-position Safety and Security Officers at the main exits to the building. When the alarm is sounded we do not allow you to leave via this main exit. This educates you regarding alternate means to exit the buildings in the event of a true emergency.

Safety and Security also works closely with the Newport Fire Department in taking steps to help ensure campus fire safety. These professional firefighters are frequent visitors to our campus where they walk through the buildings inspecting and planning for a possible emergency. At Salve Regina we believe that preventing fire with education, planning and preparation is the key to campus fire safety.
Fire Safety Education - Office of Residence Life

Overview
Residence Life fire safety policies are in the student handbook and are discussed with residents when they move into the residence hall or apartment. The handbook reads:

Fire Safety Inspection
At least three fire safety inspections of student rooms, corridors and common areas will be conducted during the academic year by a member of the Residence Life staff and, at times, a member of Safety and Security. One announced inspection will occur before the end of September. A notice with date and purpose will be prominently posted in residence halls at least 24 hours ahead of time. Unannounced inspections can occur at any time. When a student's room is unoccupied at the time of inspection, a pass-key will be used to gain entrance and a copy of a report noting any violations will be left in the room. When a room has violations, the Area Coordinator will forward a written report to the student(s) involved. All violations are subject to fines. Prohibited items will be confiscated in the interest of safety and may not be returned.

Fire Safety Regulations
In the event of a fire, the nearest fire alarm pull station should be pulled. If possible, telephone Safety and Security using the emergency telephone number (401)341-2325. The Safety and Security Office has direct telephone lines to the Newport Fire Department. If you decide to telephone 911, be sure to provide your specific building/room location. Fire safety regulations are established and maintained by the Director of Safety and Security.

All fire and safety hazards are prohibited in residence facilities. These include but are not limited to: open flames and objects that create them, and flammable material and decorations or furnishings that use them. Specific examples are: candles, incense, cooking appliances, hot plates, decorative lights, irons, ceiling decorations, wall coverage beyond 10%, space heaters, halogen lamps, neon signs, and multi-sockets. All extension cords, with the exception of a single socket heavy duty cord, are prohibited. This cord should be used to extend the reach of a surge protector.

Areas of ingress and egress, from both individual rooms and common areas of residence facilities must be kept unobstructed. Tampering with or misuse of fire safety equipment is prohibited and may result in dismissal from the Residential Life Program and the University, in addition to a fine of up to $500. Students who do not immediately vacate a building during fire drills are subject to conduct charges under the student code of conduct. As a result of the outcome, students are held financially liable for replacement of items damaged or destroyed as a result of a fire and/or safety violation and may face criminal charges.

Fireworks, Explosives or Dangerous Chemicals
Transport, possession, manufacture, use, sale, or distribution of fireworks, ammunition, explosives, flammable liquids, and all other hazardous materials are not permitted in the residence halls. Violation of this policy may result in judicial proceedings and/or criminal charges.

Fire Safety Information:

Open Flames Policy
Residence Life policies prohibit open flames, candles, smoking indoors, modification of fire safety devices (sprinklers, smoke detectors, extinguishers, etc), and initiating false alarms. Further, campus policies prohibit storage and use of hazardous materials inside all University housing.

Any appliance with an open coil heating element is a fire hazard and is not allowed, such as: hot plates, space heaters, toaster/toaster ovens and indoor/outdoor grills. The following items are not permitted in any residence hall or apartment:

- candles
- incense
- smoking (no smoking in any university building)
- cooking appliance (a few apartments do have stoves)
- ceiling decorations
- space heater
- halogen lamp
- spider lamp
- lava lamp
- neon signs
- wall coverage cannot be beyond ten percent
- nothing placed on the ceiling
- light weight or multi-headed extension cords
The following items are permitted and can be used in the residence halls and apartments:
• surge protectors (UL approved)
• heavy duty extension cord (one single headed cord used to extend the reach of the surge protector)
• Microwave (.6 cubic foot size – one per room)
• refrigerator (2.5 cubic foot size – one per room)

Smoking
Salve Regina University promotes a smoke-free environment. Smoking is NOT permitted at any time in any University building. Per Rhode Island State Law, you must smoke at least 50 feet away from any building entrance. Smoking is prohibited within 50 feet of all University building entrances.

Resident Student Fire Drills and Evacuation Exercises
In keeping with Rhode Island State Fire Codes, campus fire drills are held twice a semester (four times per academic year) for each residence hall and apartment. Fire drills are mandatory supervised evacuations of a building. The fire drills are conducted by the Office of Safety and Security and Residence Life with the assistance of a licensed University electrician.

Two drills (the first and third) are ‘obstructed’ where we pre-position Safety and Security Officers at the main exits to the building. When the alarm is sounded we do not allow students to leave via this main exit. The purpose is to educate them regarding alternate means to exit the buildings in the event of a true emergency at the traditional exits. Once outside the buildings, students are educated about the assembly locations and are provided with additional fire safety information. Students who fail to evacuate the building during a fire drill are fined and the incident is turned over to Residence Life or the Dean of Students for further action.

Records are maintained on these exercises to include the following information: person conducting the drill, date and time, staff members participating, number of occupants evacuated, special conditions such as: obstructed or unobstructed, problems encountered, weather conditions, and time required to complete the evacuation.

Procedures for Student Housing Evacuation:
Students should determine the most direct evacuation route from their room and immediately leave the building when the alarm sounds. No resident may use an elevator during a fire alarm. Residence Life staff and Safety and Security Officers will check to ensure that residents have left the building. It is a violation of Federal Law for anyone to remain inside a building when a fire alarm is sounding. Failure to evacuate the building during a fire drill or fire may result in disciplinary action from the Dean of Student’s Office. Fire officials will give the okay to return to the building. Under NO circumstances may a resident return to the building before permission is given.

General Procedures in the case of fire:
Pull the nearest fire alarm and leave via the preplanned evacuation route if safe to do so. Dial 911 or 341-2325 and give your name and location of the fire.

When a fire alarm sounds, occupants should:
Proceed immediately to the nearest unobstructed exit and move a safe distance away from the building. If time permits, close doors and windows behind you.

If there is smoke in the area, remain close to the floor.

Before passing through any door, feel the metal door-knob. If it is hot, do not open the door. Before opening a door, brace yourself against it slightly; if heat or heavy smoke are present, close the door, place a towel at the base and stay in the room.

If you cannot leave the room:
• Open the windows.
• Seal the cracks around doors with clothing or other material, soaked with water if possible.
• Hang an object (bed sheet, jacket, shirt, etc.) out the window to gain attention. Shout for help.
• If possible, call 341-2325 or 911 and report that you are trapped.
• If all exits are found to be blocked, go to a room as far as possible from the fire, close the door, and follow the above procedures.
• As with any emergency, the best advice is to be prepared by familiarizing yourself with the evacuation plans for your building and identifying the nearest exits.

Individual Evacuation Maps
Evacuation maps are posted in each resident room showing the closest means of egress and evacuation routes.

Fire Extinguisher Inspections
A private company inspects and certifies all fire extinguishers annually. The Office of Safety and Security performs a status check of the extinguishers one additional time during each academic year.

Fire Safety Video
Safety and Security produced a fire safety video that is shown on an annual basis to all freshman students in early September when they arrive. The video titled ‘New Breaker Fire’ is a first-hand account of students discussing in their own words the importance of fire safety.

Fire Log
A fire log is kept at the Office of Safety and Security open to the public during normal business hours. The fire log records any fire that occurred in an on-campus student housing facility and includes information such as the nature, date, time and general location of each fire. The Fire Log entry, or an addition to an entry, shall be made within two business days of the receipt of information.

Fire Safety in Assembly Occupancies
Salve Regina’s policy for fire safety in assembly occupancies defines procedures that ensure compliance with fire safety rules and regulations for University events. Whenever 50 or more people are expected to attend an event inside a Salve Regina owned or leased property, the individual sponsor or representative of the sponsoring organization must review these procedures prior to the event and assure compliance before and during the event (http://www.salve.edu/safety-and-security/fire-safety).
