SCHOLARSHIP

#YouAreWelcomeHere Scholarship Application

Salve Regina University

The #YouAreWelcomeHere scholarship recognizes international students who have a vision for enhancing intercultural understanding. The scholarships are available for any area of study and cover at least 50% of annual tuition for selected international undergraduates dedicated to furthering the #YouAreWelcomeHere message and bridging intercultural divides. Applicants will answer a short essay question about their ideas for applying their leadership skills on campus.

Eligibility Criteria

- Be a first-year international applicant to Salve. An international applicant is an individual who holds citizenship in a country outside the U.S. and who does not also possess U.S. citizenship or U.S. permanent residency.
- Demonstrate interest and initiative in leadership and intercultural learning.
- Complete the #YouAreWelcomeHere scholarship application and compose a 500-1000-word essay answering the following prompt,

"Tell us about your leadership skills in your school or community, and how you plan to continue applying your leadership skills at the school you are applying to?"

Application Process

1. Apply for admission to Salve using the Common Application and submit all the required documents. You will be sent instructions to set up a Student Status Page where you can monitor the progress of your application.
2. Complete the one-page #YouAreWelcomeHere scholarship application and email it with your 500-1000 word scholarship essay to: admission@salve.edu.
