BACCALAUREATE PROGRAM IN NURSING

The National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN) is an independent, not-for-profit organization through which boards of nursing act and counsel together on matters of common interest and concern affecting public health, safety and welfare, including the development of nursing licensure examinations.

The National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX) is a nationwide examination for the licensing of nurses in the US and Canada. Separate examinations are available for registered nurses (NCLEX-RN) and for practical nurses (NCLEX-PN).

After graduation from a nursing school, the NCLEX examination is taken in order to receive his or her nursing license. A nursing license gives an individual the permission to practice nursing, granted by the state where he or she met the requirements.

TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAMS

The Praxis Series tests measure teacher candidates' knowledge and skills. Tests are used for licensing and certification processes and include:

1. Core assessment: measure academic skills in reading, writing and mathematics.
Tests provide comprehensive assessments that measure the skills and content knowledge of candidates entering teacher preparation programs.
2. Subject assessment: measure subject-specific teaching skills that you need for beginning teaching.

Rhode Island Testing requirements: Except for Career and Technical Education applicants, individuals applying for a teacher certificate in Rhode Island must pass the Praxis tests for each area of certification sought.
