Elizabeth M. Bloom

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Accomplished and energetic nurse with more than 34-years of experience, 17 as a nurse educator. Served as instructor, Chairperson, and Director at a three-year diploma program in nursing. Receive "Academic Nurse Educator Award" from the Rhode Island State Nurses Association. Very passionate about the profession of nursing and highly motivated to prepare the next generation of nurses

PERSONAL
Education:	PhD – Nursing, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI
	Masters of Science – Nursing, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI
	Bachelor of Science – Nursing, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI
	Certificate, Legal Nurse Consultant – Johnson & Wales University, Providence, RI
Licenses:	Registered Nurse (RI)
Certifications:	BLS, Legal Nurse Consultant
Affiliations:	Member, ANA-RI, Member, Sigma Theta Tau, Member NLN, State Advisor, Student
	Nurses Association of Rhode Island

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

9/2015 – Present	Salve Regina University Assistant Professor, Department of Nursing
9/2015 – Present	St. Joseph School of Nursing Adjunct Clinical Faculty
5/2014 - 8/21/15	 St. Joseph School of Nursing Director One, who under the authority of the President of the Hospital is responsible for the organization and administration of the School of Nursing.
1/01/13 – 5/2014	 St. Joseph School of Nursing, North Providence, RI Interim Director One, who under the authority of the President of the Hospital is responsible for the organization and administration of the School of Nursing.
1998 – 2012	 St. Joseph School of Nursing, North Providence, RI Nursing Instructor/ Level Chairperson Teach nursing theory to freshman level students Teach Pharmacology in Nursing Practice to freshman level students Prepare teaching agenda and class assignments Oversee student nurses on the clinical unit Act as liaison between Director and Level Faculty Oversee and facilitate the work and goals of Freshman Level
2008 - 2011	University of Connecticut, School of Nursing MEIN Program, Waterbury CT Nursing Arts Lab Instructor

	• Demonstrate and teach clinical skills to MEIN students
	Plan course instruction based on syllabus/outline
	• Utilization of a variety of teaching styles and methods to accommodate diverse learning styles
1995 – 1998	Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, RI Patient Care Coordinator
	• Coordinated client care throughout the patient's hospital stay
	 Collaborated with health care professionals to ensure appropriate patient care
	• Educated client and family on post-hospital treatment plan and follow-up procedures
1981 – 1995	The Miriam Hospital, Providence, RI Registered Nurse
1981 – 1995
1981 – 1995	 Registered Nurse Provided direct patient care, medication and treatment to post open heart
1981 – 1995	 Registered Nurse Provided direct patient care, medication and treatment to post open heart patient's
1981 – 1995	 Registered Nurse Provided direct patient care, medication and treatment to post open heart patient's Coordinated and supervised nursing staff Collaborated with critical care, interdisciplinary and para-professionals to ensure care continuity
1981 – 1995	 Registered Nurse Provided direct patient care, medication and treatment to post open heart patient's Coordinated and supervised nursing staff Collaborated with critical care, interdisciplinary and para-professionals to ensure care continuity Facilitated movement of patients through critical path
1981 – 1995	 Registered Nurse Provided direct patient care, medication and treatment to post open heart patient's Coordinated and supervised nursing staff Collaborated with critical care, interdisciplinary and para-professionals to ensure care continuity Facilitated movement of patients through critical path
1981 – 1995 1990 – 1991	 Registered Nurse Provided direct patient care, medication and treatment to post open heart patient's Coordinated and supervised nursing staff Collaborated with critical care, interdisciplinary and para-professionals to ensure care continuity Facilitated movement of patients through critical path Counsel patients and caregivers on post hospital care and medications Conducted audits for quality assurance
	 Registered Nurse Provided direct patient care, medication and treatment to post open heart patient's Coordinated and supervised nursing staff Collaborated with critical care, interdisciplinary and para-professionals to ensure care continuity Facilitated movement of patients through critical path Counsel patients and caregivers on post hospital care and medications Conducted audits for quality assurance

PRESENTATIONS_

Poster presentation at NLN Biennial Convention June, 1999 entitled – Innovations: A Storyboard Presentation of Mandatory and Optional Outcomes for NLNAC Accreditation.

Horizontal Violence Among Nurses: Experiences, Responses, and Job Performance, May, 2014.